FIRST EDITION.

TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

HARRISBURG.

Proceedings of the Legislature—Final Adjournment Resolution Finally Adopted—General Bill Allowing Interested Parties to Testify Passed by Both Houses—The Registry Bill Goes to a Conference Committee.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SENATE.

HARRISBURG, April 12, 1869.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. GRAHAM introduced bills incorporating the Sharpsburg, New Castle and Butler Railroad Company; authorizing Councils of Allegheny City to purchase the right of any or all chartered road companies, whose roads are wholly or partly in the corporate limits of said city.

BILLS PASSED.

Both of Mr. Graham's bills, just introduced, passed finally

OFFERING REWARD.

The bill from the House, authorizing the Governor to offer two thousand dollars reward for the recapture of the Broadhead murderers, passed.

INTERESTED PARTIES TO TESTIFY.

The Conference Committee on the bill allowing interested parties to testify in certain counties reported in favor of a general bill, and the report was adopted.

THE REGISTRY BILL.

The Senate non-concurred in the House amendments to the Registry bill and appointed Messrs. Errett, Connell and Davis as a Conference Committee.

RECOMMITTED.

Mr. SEARIGHT had the Westmoreland Agricultural bill re-committed to the Judiciary Committee for examination as to the power of Courts over the subject.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MASONIC BANK SOCIETY.

Mr. MORGAN called up the Senate bill incorporating the Masonic Deposit and Savings Bank of Pittsburgh, which was opposed by Mr. Brown, of Clarion, and favored by Messrs. Wilson and Morgan, and passed finally.

REMONSTRANCES.

Mr. WILSON presented a remonstrance from Pittsburgh against the bill for the removal of the dead from the First Presbyterian Church yard.

Mr. MILLER, a remonstrance from Braddocks borough against a prohibitory liquor law for said borough.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. WILSON reported from the Ways and Means Committee, affirmatively, the joint resolution from the Senate for final adjournment next Friday.

Several ineffectual attempts were made to call up this bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. WEBB introduced a bill requiring a majority of the directors of corporations for a quorum. Passed.

Mr. FOY introduced a bill authorizing mechanics, journeymen and laborers to form societies for their mutual aid, benefit and protection.

Mr. CLARK, of Warren, introduced a bill extending the three hundred dollar exemption law to life estates. Passed.

The Philadelphia Police bill passed.

SPECIAL ORDER.

In the evening the special order was the bill from the Senate allowing interested parties to testify.

Messrs. Niles, Brown, of Huntingdon, Rogers and Hunter favored its passage. It was opposed by Messrs. McCullough, Playford, Beans and McMiller.

Mr. WILSON, of Allegheny, supported it in a lengthy speech.

The bill passed a second reading—yeas 54, nays 35.

WILL NOT PASS.

The bill regulating licenses in Allegheny county, granting the District Attorney five dollars fee for each case in which he appears before the board, will doubtless not pass, the feeling of the Allegheny delegation being against it. It was introduced only through courtesy to the District Attorney.

TO DEVELOPE COAL, IRON, &C.

Evening Session.—Mr. STRANG called up the Senate bill authorizing railroad and canal companies to aid in the development of coal, iron, lumber and other material interests by the purchase of stock and bonds and guarantee of principal and interest.

Mr. DUNCAN moved an amendment exempting oil operations from the provisions of the bill. Disagreed to.

The bill then passed second reading.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. PLAYFORD called up the Senate joint resolution for final adjournment next Friday. Passed finally.

CONFERENCE REPORT.

The Conference Committee reported in favor of a general bill allowing interested parties to testify. Adopted.

Thus having been adopted by both Houses, the bill goes to the Governor for approval.

PENSIONS.

The bill granting pensions to James Thompson and Daniel Bolivar, soldiers of 1812, residing in Fayette, passed the House.

TAX BILL.

The House passed the general tax bill.

Elevating Business at Buffalo.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUFFALO, April 12.—At a meeting of the Western Elevating Company this afternoon, which was fully attended, two propositions were discussed, the first to dissove the present Association, second to reduce the rates of elevating to one-half cent per bushel. Both points were fully discussed, and the prevailing sentiment was that elevating can be done more cheaply by an Association than by individuals, and the feeling was general that the proper course to pursue is to reduce the rates to one-half cent per bushel. The meeting adjourned to meet on Thursday for a decision of the points discussed.

CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 12, 1869.

The Senate met at noon, Mr. Anthony presiding. Messrs. Hamlin and Casserly were appointed a committee to inform the President that the Senate was ready for business.

An order was adopted to meet at twelve o'clock.

The standing committees continue as at the last session.

The Senate then went into Executive session.

After about two hours spent in Executive session, the door were reopened and Mr. HAMLIN, from the Committee appointed to wait on the President, reported they had performed their duty and the President replied he would send in a communication immediately and others as occasion might require.

A number of nominations were then received and the doors again closed.

Senate adjourned at 3¼ o'clock.

NEW YORK CITY.

Propeller for Cuban Insurgent—Germans and the Excise Law—The Cuban Junta—Suit Against the Erie Railroad Company.

NEW YORK, April 12, 1869.

The Post says it is reported that a fast sailing propeller, of about seven hundred tons, left this port a few days ago to aid the Cuban insurgents. It is said that after she left port a number of guns were put on board. She took out one hundred and twenty men, nearly all of them Americans.

A mass meeting of Germans was held at the Stadt Theatre, yesterday, for the purpose of giving expression to the German sentiment in regard to the proposed amendments to the excise law. About two thousand five hundred persons were present. Also representatives of the various clubs or societies, numbering at least forty-five thousand voters. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Altenbourg, formerly Charge D'Affairs to Mexico, and Mr. Goss.

Fourteen cases of Martel brandy, said to have been landed by one of the Liverpool steamers that sailed Saturday, was seized from a store on South street on Saturday evening by the Revenue officers.

Henry Arcularious, formerly a prominent Democratic politician of this city, died suddenly at the Park Hotel.

Deputy Sheriff Moran pleaded guilty of permitting the escape of King, the bond robber, and will be sentenced tomorrow.

The Cuban Junta held a meeting at St. Julien Hotel to-day, to hear the report of Senor Pirest, who has just returned from Washington. The report and proceedings of the Junta were kept secret, but it is intimated a strong expedition in aid of the Cuban revolutionists has set sail from a Southern port, under the command of a distinguished American officer.

In the United States Circuit Court suit was brought to-day by Jno. and Anna Sperry, of Connecticut, against the Erie Railroad to recover the amount of and dividends on sixty-four shares preferred stock purchased by them, and to compel the said Company to make a statement of its financial affairs.

Both branches of the City Council today adopted resolutions expressing sympathy with the Cuban patriots.

Suit has been brought in the Supreme Court for the purpose of confirming the American Merchants Union Express Company in the use of property transferred to it by the Merchants Union Express Company.

The Imperialist, a weekly journal, recently started here, is about to collapse.

CHICAGO.

Singular Suicide—Illinois Legislature—Snow Storm.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, April 12.—A somewhat noted character, named E. L. Oatman, committed suicide last night or this morning, in a basement saloon on the corner of Indiana and Clark streets, in a peculiar manner. He was discovered at about nine o'clock this morning lying on his back on a table in the saloon, directly under a common gas chandelier, from one of the burners of which a rubber tube extended into his mouth. Under his head was a cigar, and over his face was spread a coat, probably to prevent the escape of gas from his mouth. When discovered he was apparently dead, although it is asserted that during the sitting of the coroner's jury, which was called immediately after the body was discovered, there were signs of life, but no attempt was made to resuscitate him. There seems to be no doubt that the man committed suicide in the manner named.

The Legislature of this State will reassemble at Springfield, on Wednesday next, the 14th instant, after a recess of nearly five weeks. It is not anticipated that any new business will be inaugurated, but simply on bills which Governor Palmer has vetoed.

Snow fell at Ottowa, Illinois, nine miles southwest of this city, to the depth of four inches, this morning. It also snowed at Springfield, Illinois, yesterday, and this morning quite a large quantity was falling, but melting as it fell. It has been very cold here during the day, and now looks as if there might be a fall of snow, and perhaps a heavy one.

Indiana Legislature—The Democratic Bolters Back Down.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 12.—The bolting members of the House appeared this afternoon and were sworn in, and the House completed their organization by a resolution continuing the officers and employes of the regular session. After the passage of the resolution, Speaker Stanton tendered his resignation as Speaker of the House, and Hon. Geo. A. Buskirk, Republican, of Monroe county, was elected Speaker. On motion of Mr. Pierce, Republican, of Porter county, a resolution was adopted postponing action on the Fifteenth Amendment until Tuesday, 11th of May.

In the Senate there was no quorum until after the passage of the resolution in the House, postponing action on the amendment question, when the Democratic members appeared and were qualified, and the regular business of the session was commenced.

Adams, U. S. Attorney, Southern District, Miss.; Wm. G. Whipple, Attorney, Eastern District, Ark.

Assessors of Internal Revenue: E. T. Chase, Fifth District, Pa.; E. Bute, Sixth District, Pa.

Collector of Internal Revenue: Jno. R. Britenback, Sixth District, Pa.

Surveyors of Customs: W. T. Miller, Alton, Ill.; Wm. M. Evans, Parkersburg, W. Va.

Postmasters: Stewart Pierce, Wilkesbarre, Pa.; P. S. Josiyn, Carbondale, Pa.; Robert Tredell, Norristown, Pa.; W. M. Mentzer, Pottstown, Pa.; A. W. Merrick, Shamburg, Pa.; Jno. R. Slocum, Scranton, Pa.; David D. Diefenderfer, Allentown, Pa.; A. K. Rhem, Carlisle, Pa.; Geo. Listone, Montrose, Pa.; Geo. W. Richards, Pittston, Pa.; H. P. Moody, Susquehanna Depot, Pa.; David Tidball, Newcastle, Pa.; H. N. Bingham, Philadelphia, Pa.; J. H. Curran, Delaware, O.; Henry Stevenson, Greenville, O.

ARMY AND NAVY.

Rear Admiral Joseph Lanman has received preparatory orders to command the South Atlantic squadron. Lt. Col. Thos. Duncan, 5th Cavalry, is ordered to join his regiment in the Department of the Platte. Assistant Quartermaster General Rufus Ingalls is relieved from duty as Chief Quartermaster of the Military Division of the Atlantic, and will remain in charge of the general depot at New York, performing the duties of Chief Quartermaster. Deputy Quartermaster General Stewart Van Vliet, on completing the closing up of the Department at Baltimore, will take charge of the depots at Philadelphia and Schuylkill.

The President has ordered Capt. Jas. Thompson, 2d Artillery, before the retiring board, at St. Louis, and Col. John C. Robinson, 43d Infantry, before the retiring board, at New York, for examination. Col. John Dimmick is retired.

THE LAST RECONSTRUCTION LAW.

The effect of the recent action of the President and Congress on reconstruction, especially in Virginia, is of the most cheering character. Letters from Richmond say that it seems as if a load of depression has been lifted from the spirits of the people, and that the satisfaction with the action of Congress is well nigh unanimous, the only exceptions being some few sullen reactionists who still harbor the ghost of the rebellion and spit upon the flag. Business is already reviving as a consequence, and the doubt and uncertainty which has been consequent upon their chaotic condition is being removed. The people are already beginning to forcast plans for the future and to prepare for a largely increased business activity. It is believed that the material interests of the State will be advanced many millions by this action of Congress.

THE EIGHT HOUR LAW.

The President is to be waited on today by a delegation from several trades' associations in Charleston, South Carolina; Rock Island, Illinois; Springfield, Massachusetts; Franklin, Pennsylvania; Philadelphia, New York, and Portsmouth, Virginia, in reference to the construction of the eight hour law. At a meeting of these delegates, on Saturday evening, a series of resolutions were adopted and the hope expressed that the unanimous adoption of the eight hour resolution by the House and favorable consideration given it in the Senate, will be accepted by the President and the Secretaries of War and the Navy as an explanation that the act does not mean a corresponding reduction of wages.

TEXAS INDEMNITY BONDS.

Chief Justice Chase to-day rendered the decision of the United States Supreme Court in the case of the State of Texas against George M. White, John Childs, John A. Hardenburgh and others. The original suit was brought by the State of Texas to restrain defendants from receiving payment from the National Government for certain five per cent. Texas indemnity bonds of the United States, which plaintiff claims belong to the State. These bonds, it is alleged, were sold in 1865 and 1866, by authority of the insurgent Legislature of Texas, and the reconstructed government of the State now seeks to prevent payment of the value of the bonds to the holders, deriving title through said insurgent Legislature. Various interesting and important collateral questions were also raised relating to the jurisdiction of the Court, the ability of the plaintiff to sue, &c. The opinion of the Court, which is very long and able, concludes as follows: "On the whole case, therefore, our conclusion is that the State of Texas is entitled to the relief sought by her bill, and a decree must be made accordingly."

THE M'ARDLE CASE.

The Supreme Court of the United States to-day disposed of the case of Wm. A. McArdle, the Mississippi editor, who was arrested, tried and sentenced to imprisonment by military authority several years ago, on a charge of writing and publishing seditious articles in his newspaper. He had appealed from the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of Mississippi, which had denied the writ of habeas corpus. Chief Justice Chase delivered the opinion of the Court, dismissing the appeal for want of jurisdiction.

OTHER SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

The cases of the United States, appellants, vs. Albert L. Mowry, Samuel J. Morgan, Jonathan P. Burton, Oliver H. Geffroy and Benjamin Higdon, appeals from the Court of Claims, were also disposed of. The facts are briefly these: In 1861 the parties above named severally supplied the Department of the Missouri with mortar and tug boats, railroad cars, horses, &c. General Fremont was at that time in command of the Department, and McKinstry was acting as Quartermaster. The charge of fraud having been raised, the Secretary of War suspended the contracts, and a Board, under a resolution of Congress, was appointed to investigate the claims. The parties submitted their claims to the Board, which awarded certain amounts, for which they receipted, under protest. They afterwards severally brought suit in the Court of Claims, which allowed them the remainder of the money claimed under the contracts. The Supreme Court holds these parties, having voluntarily come before the Board and receipted for the sums allowed, were estopped from further claims. It was not designed by the Government that proceedings should be commenced in one tribunal and ended in another. For these and other reasons the Court, Justice Nelson delivering the opinion, reversed the decision of the Court of Claims, and remanded the causes, with directions to enter a decree dismissing the petitions.

In the case of the steamboat Belfast, B. C. Nelson, et. al. claimants in error, vs. Boon & Co., et. al., in error to Supreme Court of Alabama, Justice Clifford delivered the opinion of the Court, reversing the decree of the Court below, with costs, and remanding the cause, with directions to dismiss the libel. The case involved claims for cotton lost in transportation, and which had been insured by the owners. The Court held, as against the Court below, that the Federal jurisdiction in marine and admiralty cases extends from the sea as far up rivers as they are navigable, irrespective of tide-water.

In the case of Jesse Riddles Barger, plaintiff in error, vs. The Hartford Fire Insurance Company, in error to the Circuit Court of the United States in the District of Missouri, Justice Field delivered the opinion of the Court, affirming the judgment of said Circuit Court, with costs.

In the case of B. F. Hall et al, plaintiff in error, vs. Geo. Coppel, in error to the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Louisiana, Justice Swayne delivered the opinion of the Court, reversing the judgment of that Court, with costs, and remanding the further proceedings in conformity to opinion of this Court. Certain cotton transactions were involved in this case in which the British Consul at New Orleans bought a part. The occurrences were in 1863. The cotton was within the rebel lines. It is held that the Consul could not protect it by his official character, and that a Consul engaged in trade has no more rights in business during war than a citizen of the United States. The President issued his proclamation making exceptions as to the ports of Louisiana, Congress passed a law relative to rebel property, and the Secretary of the Treasury issued instructions pursuant to the statute. The military authorities could make no regulations, nor grant any permits contrary to them. The contracts in the case before the Court were therefore void.

The United States, plaintiff, vs. Benjamin Rosenberg, certificate of a division of opinion between the Judges of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York. Chief Justice Chase delivered the opinion of the Court dismissing the case for want of jurisdiction.

The Court then adjourned until Thursday.

THE TEXAS CASE.

The decision of the Supreme Court in the Texas case, after relating the facts as to the alleged secession of that State in 1861, says: In all respects, so far as the object could be accomplished by the ordinances of the Convention, by acts of the Legislature and by the votes of the citizens, the relations of Texas to the Union were broken up, and new relations to a new Government were substituted for them. The position thus assumed could only be maintained by arms, and Texas accordingly took part with the other Confederate States in the war of the rebellion, which these events made inevitable. During the whole of the war there was no Governor, or Judge, or any other State officer in Texas who recognized the National authority, nor was any officer of the United States permitted to exercise any authority whatever under the National Government within the limits of the State, except under the immediate protection of the National military forces. Did Texas, in consequence of these acts, cease to be a State? Or, if not, did the State cease to be a member of the Union? It is needless to discuss at length the question whether the right of a State to withdraw from the Union, for any cause regarded by herself sufficient, is consistent with the Constitution of the United States. The union of States never was a purely artificial and arbitrary relation. It began among the Colonies and grew out of common origin, mutual sympathies, kindred principles, similar interests and geographical relations. It was confirmed and strengthened by the necessities of war, and received definite form and character and sanction from the articles of confederation. By these the Union was solumnly declared to be perpetual, and when these articles were found to be inadequate to the exigencies of the country, the Constitution was ordained to form a more perfect Union. It is difficult to convey the idea of indissoluble unity more clearly than by these words. What can be indissoluble, if a perpetual Union made more perfect is not? But the perpetuity and indissolubility of the Union by no means implies the loss of distinct and individual existence, or of the right of self-government by the States. Under the articles of confederation each State retained its sovereignty, freedom and independence, and every power, jurisdiction and right not expressly delegated to the United States under the Constitution. Though the powers of States were much restricted, still all power not delegated to the United States, nor prohibited to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people. And we have already had occasion to remark at this term, that "the people of each State compose a State, having its own government and endowed with all the functions essential to separate and independent existence," and that "without the States in the Union there could be no such political body as the United States." Not only, therfore, can there be no loss of separate and independent autonomy to the States through their union under the Constitution, but it may not be unreasonably said, the preservation of the States and the maintainance of their governments are as much within the design and care of the Constitution as the preservation of the Union and maintainance of the National Government. The Constitution, in all its provisions, looks to an undestructible Union, composed of undestructeble States. When, therefore, Texas become one of the United States, she entered into an indissoluble relation. All the obligations of perpetual union, and all the guarantees of republican government in the union, attached at once to the state. The act which consummated her admission into the Union was something more than a compact. It was the incorporation of a new member into the political body, and it was final. The union between Texas and the other States was as complete, as perpetual and as indissoluble as the union between the original States. There was no place for reconsideration or revocation, except through revolution, or through the consent of the States. Considered, therefore, as transactions under the Constitution, the ordinance of secession, adopted by the convention and ratified by a majority of the citizens of Texas, and all the acts of her legislature intended to give effect to that ordinance, were absolutely null. They were utterly without operation in law. The obligations of the State, as a member of the Union, and of every citizen of the State as a citizen of the United States, remained perfect and unimpaired. It necessarily follows that the State did not cease to be a State, nor her citizens to be citizens of the Union. If this were otherwise, the State must have become foreign, and her citizens foreigners. The war must have ceased to be a war for the suppression of the rebellion, and must have become a war for conquest and subjugation.

Our conclusion, therefore, is, that Texas continued to be a State of the Union, notwithstanding the transactions to which we have referred, and this conclusion, in our judgment, is not in conflict with any act or declaration of any department of the National Government, but entirely in accordance with the whole series of such acts and declarations since the first outbreak of the rebellion.

The Court discussed at some length the measures adopted by the United States for the reconstruction of Texas, declining to pass judgment on the constitutionality of any of them, and concludes: The bonds in question were dated January 1, 1851, and were redeemable after the 31st of December, 1864. In strictness, it is true, they were not payable on the day on which they became redeemable, but the known usage of the United States is to pay all bonds as soon as the right of payment occurs, except where a distinction between redeemability and payability, made by law and shown on the face of the bonds, requires the application of the rule respecting overdue obligations to bonds of the United States which have become redeemable. Before the date of the contract with White & Childs, all bonds of the same issue, which had the endorsement of a Governor of Texas, made before the date of the secession ordinance, and there were no others endorsed by any Governor, had been paid in coin on presentation at the Treasury Department; while on the contrary all applications for the payment of bonds, without the required endorsement, and of coupons detached from such bonds, made to that department, had been denied. As a necessary consequence the negotiation of these bonds become difficult. They sold much below the rate they would have commanded had the title to them been unquestioned. They were bought in fact, and under the circumstances could only have been bought, upon speculation. The purchasers took the risk of a bad title, hoping doubtless through the action of the National Government, or the Government of Texas, it might be converted into a good one. And it is true the first Provisional Governor of Texas encouraged the expectation that these bonds would be ultimately paid to the holders; but he was not authorized to make any engagement in behalf of the State, and in fact made none. It is true, also, that the Treasury Department, influenced perhaps by these representations, departed to some extent from its original rule and paid bonds held by some of the defendants, without the requisite endorsement. But it is clear this change in the action of the defendants could not affect the rights of Texas as a State of the Union, having a government acknowledging her obligations to the National Constitution. It is impossible, upon this evidence, to hold the defendants protected by the absence of notice of the want of title in White and Childs, as those persons acquired no right to the payment of these bonds as against the State purchasers, and could acquire none through them. On the whole case, therefore, our conclusion is that the State of Texas is entitled to the relief sought by her bill, and a decree must be made accordingly.

Associate Justice Grier dissented as to the jurisdiction and merits of the cause, holding that Texas is not a State in point of fact, and therefore could not bring a suit in this Court, any more than could the District of Columbia. Associate Justices Swayne and Miller dissented as to the question of jurisdiction only.

THE EXECUTIVE SESSION.

The Senate confirmed no nominations to-day. The session was spent in the consideration of the naturalization interests between the United States and Belgium, Baden, Wurtemburg and several other German States. The Darien Canal treaty was discussed, but no action had upon it.

REVENUE ORDER.

Commissioner Delano has issued the following order, viz: That all Commissioners of Internal Revenue, and Detectives, appointed prior to March 10, 1869, which do not by their terms expire previous to the 30th day of April, 1869, shall terminate on said 30th of April.

NEWS BY CABLE.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, April 12.—A meeting of the Conservative members of Parliament was held to-night. Over two hundred members were in attendance. D'Israeli was present and made a speech, in which he indicated the future policy of the party on the Irish Church question, and announced the amendments which would be proposed by the opposition to the bill now pending in the House of Commons. These amendments are, in effect, that grants to the Irish Church since the reformation are to remain intact; that Globle lands be retained by the present holders without purchase; and that the union of the Irish Church and Church of England cease in 1872. Important modifications of the financial sections of the bill are also proposed, including the establishment of a capitalized sum for the support of the clergy, instead of the granting of annuities, and the application of a large portion of church revenues to the support of public worship and to defray the expenses of the management of the Church. Finally an effort is to be made to have all the clauses in the bill referring to the Maynooth grant and Regium Donum stricken out. Mr. D'Israeli's plan was favorably received and the proceedings of the meeting marked by much enthusiasm.

LONDON, April 12.—The Pope, on the occasion of the jubilee in celebration of the thirtieth anniversary of his accession to the Priesthood, granted pardon to a large number of persons, including many political offenders.

CUBA.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

KEY WEST, FLA., April 12.—A private letter has been received here from a reliable source in Havana, which says the Government intends to confiscate the property of all suspected parties. The writer urges Cubans now in the United States to lose no time in placing their property in the hands of foreigners.

HAVANA, April 12.—The Diario reports that the insurgents at Signane decapitated a young girl and shot two others.

Brigadier General Telonia, of the Spanish army, has arrived at Havana.

Captain General Dulce, at a recent meeting of officers, made a speech, in which he highly complimented the volunteers for their courage and zeal.

The Diario says the woods surrounding Puerto Principe have been set on fire, and adds that the troops will soon clear the vicinity of rebels.

Small bands of insurgents are operating near Cincio Villas. Their numbers are increasing in the vicinity of Santiago de Cuba, and it is supposed they are going to Cincio Villas, where they will mass their forces. The movement, it is thought, explains the recent disappearance of Rebels from the jurisdiction of Jiguaro.

A report was in circulation yesterday that Cespedes had been captured, but it proves to be unfounded.

AT TWILIGHT.

[We copy the following from Stedman's "The Blameless Prince, and Other Poems," published

The sunset darkens in the West,
The sea gulls haunt the bay,
And far and high the swallows fly,
To watch the dying day.
Now where is she that once with me
The rippling waves would list?
And O for the song I loved so long,
And the darling lips I kist!

Yon twinkling sail may whiter gleam
Than falcon's snowy wing,
Her lances far the evening star
Beyond the waves may fling;
Float on ah float, enchanted boat;
Bear true hearts o'er the main,
But I shall guide thy helm no more,
Nor whisper love again!

PENNSYLVANIA.

BUCKS county has a touch of oil fever.

CLASSIC Gettysburg has a velocipede school.

MEADVILLE firemen are exempt from all city taxation.

MCKEAN BUCHANAN is with his daughter acting in Erie.

DOYLESTOWN is trying have hydrant water. We hope it will succeed.

MISS AUGUSTA DARGON is to give a reading in Johnstown early next month.

ERIE, generally, seems pleased at the appointment of Mr. I. B. Gara to the postoffice at that place.

Two head of cattle and two dogs have recently died of hydrophobia in the neighborhood of Norristown.

THE Greenville Argus has changed proprietors and improved in appearance. It is now as handsome a country paper as any published in Western Pennsylvania.

THE postoffices at Akron and Millway, in Lancaster county, were robbed Sunday week of a large amount of postage stamps and a couple of watches belonging to officials.

THE Monongahela Republican says Rev. Vance, in charge of the Baptist Church, Olive Branch, was dismissed from his charge on accouut of conduct unbecoming a minister.

MR. THOS. WALKER, of Connellsville, formerly a lieutenant of the 14th Pennsylvania Cavalry, has taken charge of the scientific department of the State Agricultural Farm at Indiana, Pa.

ON Wednesday morning last the house of Rev. John R. Snyder, one mile below Richfield, was destroyed by fire. The insurance expired about a month ago and had not been renewed.—Juniata Sentinel.

ON WEDNESDAY, the 31st of March, a fire broke out in Montour, which consumed eight houses and damaged many others. The loss, about $25,000, is the heaviest ever experienced by fire in Montour.

THE Carlisle Herald says: "It is rumored that a party of gentlemen from Lebanon county have been looking along the line of the South Mountain Railroad with the intention of building large Iron Works."

THE newly incorporated woolen manufacturing company, at Uniontown, has purchased Bailey's old tannery, which is now being thoroughly overhauled and prepared for the reception of machinery, which, it is hoped, will soon be in active operation.

THE Raftsman's Journal says owing to the cold and stormy weather that prevailed in this region for some days, rafting was very much retarded. But now, that pleasant weather prevails, we may expect that running will be resumed with renewed vigor.

THE Mount Union News says that a little child of Mr. Allen Bell, in Barree township, aged twenty-two months, on last Tuesday a week, during the absence of its mother for a few minutes, fell into a run near the house and was drowned before being discovered.

IT IS STATED that the Corry machine works, which are now turning out 250 Climax mowers a week, are to be enlarged so as to employ one thousand men and turn out one thousand machines per week. By this calculation it takes one man just a week to make one machine.

DURING the last two weeks in March, no less than three men were killed while engaged in driving logs in the Sinnemahoning and its tributaries. Several others have also been seriously injured. We have not learned the names of the killed or wounded.—Raftsman's Journal.

ON Thursday morning a girl about fourteen years of age was drowned in the Monongahela river near Port Perry. The unfortunate girl was subject to fits, and it is supposed while walking by a steep place on the bank was seized in a fit, fell into the river and was drowned. Her body was recovered and buried on Friday.

AT PLEASANTVILLE there is at present very little or no excitement among oil operators or land dealers. About twenty wells have been abandoned within the last three weeks, and drilling has been suspended on six or eight new wells during the same time, but there is, notwithstanding, a goodly number of wells still in process of drilling.

WE LEARN from the Middletown Journal that on Tuesday of last week a party of seven young men started form the neighborhood of the Cameron Furnace, at that place, in a small boat, for a ride on the Swatara creek. The wind was pretty heavy, and their boat was upset, and two of the party, Simon C. Zimmerman and Benjamin Fralich, were drowned.

ON April 1st, two children of Frank Hilliard, of Washington township. Butler county, aged respectively twelve or fourteen and two years, were so badly burned that death ended their sufferings on the following night. During the absence of their parents they attempted to revive the fire by pouring petroleum on it, but the flames communicated to the can and thence to the children's clothing.

THE Lawrence Journal of New Castle says: On Saturday of last week, while James Pollock, clerk in the drug store of S. McKinley, in this city, was lifting a bottle from a shelf, he accidentally struck another containing aqua fortis, causing it to fall upon his person. Some of the contents fell upon his face and neck, burning him quite seriously. His coat and vest were totally destroyed.

A LITTLE daughter of Mr. Joseph B. Holloway, residing about a mile from the village of Douglassville, Berks county, was terribly bitten and injured by a rat. on Tuesday night last. During the night the parents were roused by the screams of the little one, and on procuring a light found it to be all over blood, the palm and two fingers of the left hand having been badly gnawed, and the flesh eaten off by a rat. The face was also somewhat bitten. The child, which is only ten or eleven months old, will probably lose the use of the two injured fingers.

WM. HILL, a son of Jacob H. Hill, of Oley township, committed suicide on Sunday morning by hanging himself in his father's stable. The boy was weak-minded, and seems to have been infected with the suicidal mania pervading that section of the county—this act of self-destruction making the third case of suicide in that neighborhood within the last few months. Young Hill was about sixteen years of age.

THE Miltonian says an old newspaper published at Northumberland, sixty-five years ago, gives some interesting items of those times. The editor says: We noticed one thing in the paper that surprised us. It was a statement that a Mr. Coates, of this State, had invented a mowing and reaping machine for grass and grain. The machine, it was claimed, would cut the grain, lay it in regular order and rake it into sheaves at one operation, and would do all this as fast as a horse could walk. This is as much as the improved machines of the present day claim to do. McCormick and Manny must have got their ideas from Coates' machine of 1804.

YESTERDAY morning about ten o'clock, at Mahanoy City, Hiram Ware, one of the firm of Hoppes & Co., proprietors of the extensive flouring mill of that borough, was killed by a terrible accident. It appears that while adjusting a bolt attached to one of the mill stones in the pit of the mill (a dark dungeon filled with cog gearings, belting and drums,) he was drawn into the machinery by, it is supposed, the tail of his coat catching in a belt. His head, above his nose, was entirely cut off. His skull was broken in a dozen places, and strewn all over the pit. His brains were gathered up and placed in his hat. Mr. Ware was about forty-five years old, and one of the most enterprising and highly respected citizens of Mahanoy city.—Miner's Journal, April 3.

OHIO.

CANFIELD had several inches of snow on the third.

WILD PIGEONS are very numerous in Madison county.

THE Ohio State Festival of Song will be held in Mansfield on the 19th and 23d of April.

YOUNGSTOWN is to have a fine new hotel to cost, exclusive of the lots on which it is to be built, forty thousand dollars.

THE number of marriages in Ohio, during the year ending July 1st, 1868, was 28,221, about 1,000 less than the preceding year. The number of divorces granted during the same year number 847, a decrease of 120 as compared with the year previous.

A CALL, signed by six hundred and eighty persons, residing in fifty-five counties in this State, has been issued, calling a State Temperance Convention to meet at Crestline on the 15th of April for the purpose of organizing a State Temperance party.

JACOB ALBERT, who lives in Monroe county, has succeeded in buying stock of the people in the southern part of the county to the value of several thousand dollars, with the proceeds of which he has left for parts unkown, without paying for the stock.

LAST Thursday Mrs. Susan Moore, aged about eighty-five years, residing at Wellsville, was burned so seriously that she died in a few hours. None of the family were in the room at the time. The inmates of the house and some of the neighbors hearing screams ran in and found her lying on the hearth burned in a shocking manner.

ON Saturday a daughter of Elisha Doudna, near Barnesville, Belmont county, went with a smaller brother to kill a chicken; she was holding the chicken while the little boy undertook to chop its head off with an axe; just as the boy was about to strike the chicken threw up its wings, frightened the girl, who threw out her hand, and the descending axe struck her arm at the wrist, severing her hand from the arm.

WE WERE informed the other day of the birth of a child near Senacaville, this county, that has feet like those of an opossum, and a double hare-lip, with the nose hanging down like the trunk of an elephant. The mother of the child says during the earlier stages of her pregnancy she was badly frightened by an opossum, which, the Doctors say, was the cause of the deformed progeny. At last accounts the child was still alive.—Cambridge Jeffersonian.

A New Grace Darling.

A Providence (R. I.) letter to the Boston Journal says: "Ida Lewis has again distinguished herself by rescuing two men from drowning. We cannot recollect just how many she has saved from watery graves, but we think the number is not less than a dozen. Her father is keeper of the Lime Rock Lighthouse, located near Fort Adams. Having been almost a helpless invalid for a number of years past, the labor indispensible to keeping the light in proper order has devolved upon his wife, who has found an able assistant in his daughter Ida. The latter jumps into her boat almost daily, regardless of what the weather may be, and with a pair of oars, propels it to Newport, distance one and a half miles, in an incredibly short space of time. She has been 'brought up on the water,' as it were, and can manage a boat better than nine out of ten of the male sex. In fact, she claims that she can row a boat faster than any man in Newport, and we are inclined to believe her, having witnessed her management of one on several occasions. Ida is about twenty-three years of age, tall and slender, but possessed of unusual courage and endurance. She never hears the voice of distress, night or day, without jumping into her little craft and proceeding to the scene of trouble. She has encountered great perils in the prosecution of her humanitarian offices, but her great tact and coolness have always been equal to the emergency.

AT CADIZ, Ohio, the other day, the ladies of the United Presbyterian Church, resolved to surprise their pastor, Rev. Mr. Meloy, with a present of an elegant dressing gown. About the time it was completed, the makers concluded to hold a fair, and, believing some money could be made, and an additional compliment conveyed to their pastor at the same time, they put up the garment to be "voted on" at a quarter a head, expecting, of course, that Mr. Meloy would get a big majority. It did not work that way, however. On counting the ballots, however, it was found that Meloy had 105, and Newman 216—Newman being a colored preacher!

"Let's Have a Drink"—Something About an Absurd American Custom.

A temperance paper gets off the following:

The ridiculous, absurd American custom of "asking" is responsible for seven-eighth—mind, we say seven-eighths, and mean it too—of all the liquor consumed in this country. Abolish that custom to-day, and where there are eight barrels of liquor drank now, there would be but one. We believe this, and believe it can't be gain-said. We appeal to any number of drinkers for their opinion in matter. To this custom we owe our "drinking between drinks," which some wag, with more truth than poetry in his soul, said was the only thing that hurt, or words to that effect.

What a piece of ridiculous folly it is to go into a place, if in the mood for liquor, and to ask five or six acquaintances up to drink with you; yet it is done all the time, and by parties who, perhaps, want the money for stockings; but not to do it when your acquaintances are about, is to be looked upon as "small potatoes" and few in the hill. Take the following as an illustration of a delightful "fix" liable to arise from this absurd custom:

You feel in a mood for a glass, You go for it. Meet a friend just as you are about to enter a gin-mill, and you "ask him in." Enter, and he comes upon a group of five or six of his friends, who have just entered and are conversing for a moment. You are introduced all around by your friend. Where are you now? With a dollar in your pocket and five or six fellows on your hands, only one of whom you ever saw before, and morally bound by custom and impelled by false pride to ask them to join you in a social glass.

You can't get out of it; they know you come in for liquor, and as your friend introduced you and didn't invite, why you must do the honors, and you say you are glad to see them (an infernal lie, by the way) and ask them up. If you are known at the bar, all right; if not, you have to borrow of your friend. How's that? Perhaps some of the party might ask you some other time, but the chances are they wouldn't know you from a baked apple. A most absurd, dead fraud this "asking" in connection with liquor. Do we ask, coax, prevail on acquaintances to go in and have neckties, gloves or boots with us? "Come in and take a bottle of wine with me?" men will say, and take you by the arm, and in you go. Do they ever say, "Come in and have a hat with me?" Are you continually urged to eat things? Do they ask you to take pocket-knives, lead-pencils, hair-dye, tooth-powder, paper collars or umberellas with them? No, this "asking" business is confined to liquor. It is liquor liberality, or a custom, rather, that extends itself to no other article, if we except oysters and cigars, but in these it is limited.

Take a party of six Germans, who go in for their lager. They sit down, and each one drinks what he wants and pays for what he drinks. He isn't forced and bantered bacause he does not drink more. The same with Englishmen, Frenchmen, and all other people on the face of the globe, except Americans. You know how it would be with six of the latter, did they go in for lager. There would be thirty-six glasses drank, or paid for, if not all drank, because each must "ask" the others. Humbug! Folly!"

Imagine a case like this, did the "asking" business extend beyond the confines of liquor. Two gentlemen walking up Broadway. One is attracted by a fine display of bottles—no, boots, shoes, etc., in a window. "Bob, let's go in and have some boots." In they go. "Take hold, Bob. What's your fancy?" "Thank you, Tom, but I'm not taking boots just now." "Oh, get in. Take hold. One pair won't hurt you." "No, excuse me, Tom." "Take something, Bob. Take home a pair of boots for your wife. Don't see me do this thing alone." Bob comes down and takes a pair of boots. It's no use. Who could withstand Tom's appeal?

Cost of Recent Wars.

The following curious statistics are published in a Paris paper of the number of men killed in action between the years 1854 and 1868. The sum total in both continents of human beings sacrificed to Bellona is thus given: The war in the Crimea, 748,900; Italy, 44,000; Schleswig-Holstein, 3,500; North America, 281,000; South America, 519,000; Germany, 45,000; Asia and Africa, 95,000; sum total, 1,786,400. The expenses amounted to 47 miliards 870 million francs, thus divided: Crimean war, 8,500,000,000f.; Italian, 1,500,000,000f.; Schleswig-Holstein, 180,000,000f.; North America, 23,500,000,000f.; South America, 11,500,000,000f.. Germany, 1,650,000,000.; Asia and Africa, 1,000,000,000f.; total, 47,070,000,000f.

A PHILADELPHIA paper says: This end of the Twitchell case closes one of the darkest tragedies in the history of the Quaker City, replete as her annals have lately been with deeds of bloods. From out the depths of her intense respectability and prim social life, where it had lain dormant and unsuspected, suddenly sprang this horrible Twitchell family. It is now admitted that Mrs. Hill formerly kept a disreputable house in Washington, and that her daughter was an illegitimate child whose father was formerly a member of Congress from Ohio. This daughter entered the Twitchell family as housekeeper for the father, and, it is asserted, maintained an illicit connection with him for several years before marrying the son. The tragedy of to-day is regarded as a sequel that might have been expected from such a retrospect as this.

THE Wheeling Intelligencer is informed that a short time since an opening was discovered in the ground near Cranberry Summit, which, on being enlarged and cleared up, proved to be the entrance of an old mine, in which were discovered several old English tools; on one of the timber supports of the roof of the mine was found inscribed "1808." A further investigation led to the discovery that this was a silver mine, which had at one time been worked. Specimens have been sent to Philadelphia for assay, but we have not yet learned the probable yield.

THERE is a girl in Linn county, Iowa, sixteen years old, of whom the following is narrated: For six weeks of the coldest weather of last winter, during the sickness of her father and mother, she attended, carefully and well, forty-eight sheep, seven head of horses, twelve head of cattle and two calves, besides milking three cows, driving the cattle a quarter of a mile every day to water, cleaning the house-stable, doing the house-work and taking care of her sick parents.

DR. WHITTIER
CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhœa, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A.M. to 8 P.M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P.M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 12, 1869.

The markets in a general way present but little that is new or important. The demand for all of the leading commodities continues light being restricted mainly to supplying immediate wants, while values, generally, compared with last week, have undergone no quotable change. Flour is in fair local demand, and a little stronger, but unchanged. Provisions steady with a regular jobbing demand, and prices are fully sustained. Grain of all kinds is a shade stronger, and with a very reduced supply, prices generally are firmer, though the demand continues light.

APPLES—Prime Apples, in sound condition, are very scarce, and may be quoted at $6@6,50 per bbl.

APPLE BUTTER—90@$1 per gallon.

BUTTER—Is in steady demand, and we can report regular sales of prime to choice Roll at 45@48.

BEANS—$3,25@3,50 per bushel.

CRANBERRIES—None in market.

CORNMEAL—$1,75@1,80 per cwt.

CHEESE—Sales of New York Goshen at 24@25.

CARBON OIL—May be quoted at 30@31 for standard brands, in a jobbing way.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches dull but unchanged, at 14 for quarters, and 18 for halves—sale 2 tons quarters reported at 13½. Apples scarce and in good demand, with sales of prime bright at 12@13.

EGGS—The demand is light and market dull, and prices barely sustained, 22.

Live Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Cattle Market.—The receipts for the week were 6,155 beeves, 23,059 sheep and lambs, 13,266 hogs. The market opened this week with a fair supply of Cattle and at prices fully a ½ to ¾ of a cent below the figures of Monday, so that the advance on that day was entirely lost. The market, however, gathered a little strength and by Friday things looked a little better for salesmen, who sold at prices a ½ cent below Monday's rates. To-day the market opened with a supply of 100 car loads at Communipaw, 40 do at West End and 200 head at the National Yard. The day was a very fine one and the market was moderately active, but as holders did not care to force sales, trade was slow and prices ruled about ½c below the rates of last Monday; poor to medium Cattle, 12@13½c; medium to fair steers, 14@15c; good steers and fat oxen, 15@16c; prime to extra steers, 16@16½c; choice, 16¼@17c; a majority of the sales were made at 14@15c, the average price being 14¼c, and the poorest cattle brought 11½@12c. Sheep and Lambs—in the earlier part of the week the arrivals were: Communipaw 6,400 head, Bergen Hill 600 head and 8,400 head at Fortieth street, the market at the opening was firm for good but slow for common stock, and prices ruled from 7 to 9½c for common to extra prime wool Sheep, while shorn Sheep ranged from 6½ to 7¼c, towards the close of the week holders in view of the falling off in the receipts, were firmer in their views, while buyers were not prepared to pay higher prices and thus the market was quiet; to-day the offerings were 2,000 head at Communipaw, 800 at Hudson City and 3,000 at Fortieth street; for good stock the market ruled quiet and steady at full prices, while poor Sheep were very slow of sale. Lambs begin to arrive and meet with a fair demand when of a good size and fiat, while poor stock are dull; the sales reported during week were 19,114 head: common to fair sheep sold at 6½@7¼c; good to prime at 7½@8c; extra at 8@8½c; premium at 9@10½c; sheared at 6@7½c; lambs 16@20c. Hogs; the supply in the earlier part of the week was, 2,031 head at Fortieth street and 5,872 head at Communipaw; though the demand was not active the prices were firmly supported, and in some instances higher; strictly prime hogs were much wanted and sold as high as 11¼@11⅜c, while the course stock sold low; to-day the offerings were, 2 000 head at Fortieth street and 2,560 head at Communipaw, but the market was firm at the subjoined figures: prime heavy corn fed $11,25@11,37½; medium $11@11 25; common $10,75@11,00; dressed $13,50@14,00.

PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—Cattle Market.—Beef Cattle dull and unchanged; sales of 1,400 head, at 10@10½c for extra Pennsylvania and western stears; 8@9½c for fair to good, and 6@7c per lb, gross, for common. Sheep in demand; sales of 9,000 head at 9½c, gross. Hogs advanced 25c; sales of 40,000 head, at $14@15,75 per cwt. net, the latter for corn fed.

CHICAGO, April 12.—Cattle Market,—Hogs are steady at $9,50@9,80 for common; $10@10,25 for fair to medium; $10,-@10,62½ for good to choice. Beef Cattle are moderately active and steady; sales at $4,50@5,62½ for cows and light steers; $6@6,62½ for fair to medium; $7@7,62½ for good to extra shipping steers.

ST LOUIS, April 12—Cattle Market.—Cattle dull and unchanged at $4@7 for fair to choice, and $2,75@3,50 for inferior to common. Hogs range at $8@10; receipts 400 head.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was reported swelling slightly last evening with six feet ten inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. Weather changeable and cool.

The St. Marys and Alaski from Cincinnati, and Julia No. 2, from Zanesville, constitute the arrivals since the date of our last report.

The Alaski, we believe is the largest stern wheel boat boat that has been here since the days of the Adriatic, and, it is said, has a greater tonnage than any stern wheeler that ever passed through the canal. She is announced for New Orleans, and will, it is expected, be able to get off on Thursday.

The towboat Geo. Thompson, arrived from Parkesburg with two barges of lumber.

The Maggie Hays is announced to take her departure for St. Louis and St. Paul this evening.

The Bellvernon left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Friday, and the Lorena was advertised to follow on Saturday.

The Camelia, Capt. Thos. H. Golding, is filling up steadily, and will be the first boat out for Nashville.

The Ida Rees No. 2, left St. Louis for Fort Benton, on Friday, and the Arkansas and Importer, were to have left on Saturday.

The Maggie Hays, Capt. B. C. Martin, is announced for St. Louis and St. Paul, forthwith. She is one of the best boats in the trade.

Some of the steamer Rubicon has been changing hands lately. She is now owned as follows: Geo. W. Haslett, nine-sixteenths, and Wm. H. Blake seven-sixteenths.

The new steamer Australia is up for New Orleans, and is now ready for engagements.

The mate of the Lorena, John Hague was stabbed at St. Louis on Friday, last by a negro roustabout with whom he had some difficulty in regard to work. Mr. Hague was stabbed in three places, one under the left arm one in the muscles of the left arm, and the other on the hand. The negro was arrested, and committed on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill. The wounds of Mr. Hague, though serious, are not considered dangerous.

The Wauanita, in command of Capt. C. A. Dravo, a well-known steamboatman, is announced for St. Louis and St. Paul.

The R. C. Gray and New York were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Monday.

The splendid side-wheeler St. Marys, Capt. T. C. Sweeny, Morris Dorsey clerk, is the regular packet for Cincinnati today, leaving promply at noon. She is in all respects, the finest and most commodious steamer that comes to this port, and as a consequence, offers superior inducements to passengers. Shippers will have their bills of lading down as early in the day as possible.

—The towboat Collier arrived at Louisville on Friday with a tow of coal for W H Brown. The V. F. Wilson also arrived the same day, with two steamboat hulls laden with Pittsburgh manufacturies.

—Judge Broughton, the father of Mr. Ed. Broughton, who is one of the clerks on the Belle Lee, was the greatest sufferer by the destuctive fire at Rodney, Mississippi. His loss beyond insurance will doubtless reach $30,000.

—The steamboat Hard Times was sold at Augusta, Georgia, on Tuesday last for $1,900. She was formerly a Pittsburgh boat, having been built here a number of years ago by Capt. Perry Brown.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 133⅛.

THE Republicans of Tennessee hold their State Convention at Nashville, May 26th, to nominate a candidate for Governor.

A TEMPERANCE CONVENTION is called to meet at Monongahela City on the 27th and 28th inst., to attend which those friendly to the cause are invited.

A WHEEL-BARROW load of the Alabama correspondence has been laid before the Senate. An abundance of light reading is thus provided for Senators and journalists.

BOTH branches of the Legislature have agreed to adjourn on Friday next. There is much business yet remaining which will have to be rushed rapidly through, or else go over to the next term.

MR. REVERDY JOHNSON is to be succeeded, in the English Mission, by Mr. JOHN LATHROP MOTLEY. The new diplomacy, which is to be inaugurated at London, will be illustrated by the scholarship and experience of the American representative.

SENATOR POMEROY proposes an experimental trial of female suffrage in Utah, and has accepted the Mormon invitation to deliver an address in its favor, at the Salt Lake Tabernacle in July. The suffrage for woman will get twelve votes in the Senate, Judge TRUMBULL'S among them, whenever the issue is fairly presented.

BUT fifty-two miles of track remain yet to be laid before the Atlantic and Pacific coasts are joined together by a continuous iron band. Fifteen days yet, and the project dreamed of by those who have gone before us in the last generation shall have been accomplished, and a fixed reality, to mark a great era in the history of the country.

IT IS not improbable that the Legislature will enact a general bill, or in other words, one applying to all counties of the State, allowing interested parties to testify in the courts. There would be much practical wisdom in such a law, and we hope the members will adopt the report, favoring the bill presented by the Conference Committee.

OUR EXCHANGES mention that emigration to the West from the Middle and New England States has been much heavier this Spring than for many years heretofore. The emigrants are principally farmers, who look forward with hope to amass fortunes out of the neglected prairies and fields of the West, that have not yet been made subject to the despotism of the plow.

THE surviving soldiers of the war of 1812 are everywhere in movement, to secure a proper recognition of their services in the way of Government pensions. At one of their meetings held in Iowa, their fellow-soldiers throughout the Union were requested to meet at convenient points on the 20th of June next, to take part in an organised pressure upon Congress, to secure the proposed pensions.

A LONG LIST of diplomatic nominations was submitted to the Senate yesterday. The missions to Portugal and Mexico were not included. The most prominent names are those of MOTLEY for England, CARLISLE for Sweden, CURTIN for Russia and JAY for Austria. The list generally represents the local pressure in favor of the successful candidates, while, taken both as a whole and in detail, the selections will be as satisfactory to the country as they are creditable to the considerate judgment of the President.

IT is announced that a fast sailing propellor left New York a few days ago with arms and ammunition for the Cuban insurgents, together with a reinforcement of a full company of Americans. Where were the Government officials while the expedition was fitting out? More rumors reach us of the departure for the same Island, of a formidable expedition from a Southern port, and there cannot be any doubt that Cuba is a grand plum in the eyes of thousands of Americans of filibustering proclivities.

WE HAVE RECEIVED, fresh from the publishers, GEORGE R. ROWELL & Co 's American Newspaper Directory, a great work, which must have involved vast labor in its preparation. It presents, in a neat and comprehensive form, a complete list of newspapers and others publications of this country, together with the names of those immediately connected with them, and other interesting and valuable information. The volume makes a clear and beautiful typographical appearance, and should be found on the library shelves of every professional mercantile and literary gentleman in the land.

THE one hundred and fifty-seven railways of New York represent, to-day, a total cost of $208,185,783. In horse-railways, $21,133,532 more have been expended. The steam lines conveyed 18,434,486 persons last year, killing 302 or 1 in 60,000, and injuring 486, or 1 in 38,000. The casualty report does not discriminate between passengers, employees, and citizens generally outside of those classes. It is probable that less than half of the reported accidents occurred to passengers, to whom the ratio of fatal injury was probably as low as 1 in 100,000, and it may have been much less. The Accident Insurance Companies charge one cent in ten thousand for a day's policy. Insuring the 100,000 travelers at $1,000 each, they receive $10,000 in premiums, with an average of only $1,000 to pay. The $9,000 remaining leaves, after meeting all expenses, a handsome margin of profit. Nevertheless, the prudence of the insuring traveller is quite commendable.

THE Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis, or "Pan-handle," Railway earned, in 1868, a total of $2,330,573.01, leaving a net of $525,992.53. The business exhibits an increase in the earnings of $188,884.10 over the preceding year. Improvements are continually in progress, in the structure and equipment of the road. Its connections are much enlarged and strengthened, and its first-rate position, as an important link in the great trunk-line from the South-west to the seaboard, is already admitted in the railway world. Considering the difficulties out of which this road has so long struggled, and the brilliant future upon which it is now entering, we must congratulate its managers upon the patience, forecast and ability which are at last conspicuously proved.

WE HAVE, at last, the Post's explanation of the reverse which its party experienced in Connecticut last week. Here it is:

The convention which placed in nomination the Connecticut State ticket, unfortunately passed resolutions in favor of paying all the bonds in gold. This disheartened the rank and file; lost us a couple thousand votes, and, with them, the State ticket.

Our neighbor may be conscientious, but is not as carefully accurate as we would like. Will it be good enough to re-print the resolutions of which it speaks? Otherwise, will it retract its assertion, and confess the truth, which was that the Convention adopted no such resolutions. The Post would have done better to have adopted the little editorial article which we prepared for its columns, and which clearly stated the facts. Not even thanking us for our kindness, it shows an ingratitude quite equal to its indiscretion, in the mis-statement which we now expose.

COUNCILS held a meeting yesterday for the purpose of taking action on the proposed plan for the grading and paving of the avenues leading to the new districts of the city. Owing to a neglect on the part of the proper officer to serve personal notices to the members, the representatives of the old wards in the Select branch, believing that they were tricked and that the meeting was technically illegal, bolted almost in a body, leaving no quorum present. This disagreeable occurrence is to be regretted, as it threatens to destroy the harmony and good feeling which have hitherto prevailed in our city assembly. We can see nothing in the circumstances to justify the withdrawal of the members, as the Indiana Legislature plan is not the fairest way to meet and defeat questions which may arise in Councils. However, we feel assured that explanations will be offered, and that the sectional spirit engendered yesterday will be brief lived, and all things soon again go smoothly with the City Fathers in Council assembled.

THE RUSSIAN MISSION.

For this responsible trust, the President has submitted to the Senate the name of Ex-Governor ANDREW G. CURTIN, of Pennsylvania. This nomination has been generally anticipated for the two weeks past, the President's intentions in that direction having been freely communicated to his friends. It has, therefore, already been freely discussed among the people of this Commonwealth. A diversity of opinion has been manifested; we must admit that this was natural, when we recall the unfortunate divisions which have, in former years, marred the harmony and even imperilled the supremacy of the Republican party of Pennsylvania. But, as these divisions are fading away, so we are bound in conscientious duty to declare that the President's selection of Governor CURTIN for that honorable trust evinces a sincere and wise desire to aid in the pacification of all divisions among the supporters of his Administration everywhere. More than that; Governor CURTIN has the requisite ability and knowledge of public affairs to fill the mission with credit to himself and honor to his country. We shall therefore welcome his confirmation by the Senate, whether in the interests of the Republic abroad, or that Republican harmony which is so essential to our continued control in this State of Pennsylvania.

SOUTHERN REPUBLICANISM.

The people of Virginia regard the prospect, for the early reconstruction of that State, with a feeling of general gratification. The election will probably be ordered late in May, with separate votes on three sections of the new Constitution. Under the new registration, about twelve or fifteen thousand names are added to the voting population of the State.

There is to-day, in Virginia, a practicable foundation for an effective Republican organization. The action of Congress, supplemented by the prudence of the Presidential policy, presents the material for a broader and more cordial harmony in the politics of that State, than it has known since 1861. The separate submission of the disputed points in the Constitution will avoid altogether the threatened antagonisms among our friends, who will now move together for the adoption of the main portion of that instrument. Even if the three sections, which are obnoxious to so many good and heartily loyal Virginians, should all be defeated, with the ratification of the rest the State will gain the substantial advantages of a progress which shall mark a radical departure from the traditional State-policy of the Old Dominion. The new Virginia will no longer be afflicted with the prejudices, ostracisms, and impracticably foolish conceits which have, for the generation past, wholly obstructed her onward march in material prosperity. Her new Constitution will be radically Republican, and so far a vast improvement upon the sham Democracy which made Virginia politics, and her pretensions in every particular, a by-word throughout the other States of the Republic.

If our anticipations shall be justified by the issue of the election itself, we shall feel very much like congratulating Republicans everywhere, upon the establishment of our political opinions upon an enduring basis in that State. We have already there, as in other States of the South, a large Republican strength, but it has hitherto been confined almost entirely to the freedmen. It is probable that this very Virginia has a larger per centage of white Republicans than were to be found in any of the late rebel States, excepting North Carolina. The future strength of our party, throughout the South, must depend in a large degree upon an increased infusion of the white element. It will be very unsafe to place any permanent dependence upon the colored vote alone. The policy of Congress, and of the Administration, should wisely be so shaped as to attract the confidence and support of such intelligent Southern whites as may be reasonably free from hereditary prejudices, and to whom the events of the eight years past have instructed in the direction of a sounder and purer Americanism. We should go to the last limit, consistently with the essential spirit of Republican politics, in the practical policy of winning and keeping all the white votes that we can. These are of a class which, once dominant by law, will continue, for many a year to come, dominant through its superior intelligence and familiarity with public affairs. We cannot always defy, or even resist, its combined, unanimous hostility to the party of progress; it is our duty to secure its division, and white recruits for our own ranks, at the earliest moment, and by every illustration of our prudence as well as of our firmness.

Such is precisely the result which is likely to follow the recent legislation of Congress, not only in Virginia, but to a considerable degree in Mississippi and Texas. Supported with the powerful and cordial aid of the Federal government, as well as fortified by the wise forbearance which, in the matter of certain controverted details, has conceded so much to the yet powerful feeling of self-assertion among the Southern people, our friends in all those States will find themselves the nucleus of an organization which, must rapidly swell its numbers, and which, in Virginia, will immediately present itself as a compact, harmonious and controlling power. We are not too sanguine in predicting that the day is not far distant when the party of Southern radical Republicanism shall be respectable, not only in its numbers, but, what it has not yet been, in the estimation of the white race in all those States. Its resulting influence upon State and National affairs will correspondingly increase.

SPRAGUE'S SPEECHES. — A certain queer genius whose prominent speciality was an aversion to water, happened home late one night, with that peculiar, furry sensation about his tongue and tonsils which gentlemen who rejoice in Clubs will remember as part of their experience. His wife had left standing upon a bureau a tumbler, in which—for some purpose known to house-wives—she had put a small ball of silken thread to soak. Without observing this fact Bibulous seized the tumbler, and swallowed its contents. Feeling a thread in his mouth, he began pulling upon it. To his horror, yard after yard came stringing forth, until, in an agony of excitement, he cried out: "Lucy, Lucy, for God's sake come here! I'm unravelin'."

ANNIVERSARY.

Ladies' Prayer Book Society—Anniversary Meeting—Sixteenth Annual Report.

On Sunday evening, the Sixteenth Anniversary Meeting of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Ladies' Prayer Book Society was held in St. Peters Church, and was attended by large numbers of the friends of the enterprise from the different Episcopal Churches in either city. The principal part of the exercises consisted in the preaching of an appropriate and impressive sermon by the Rev. J. H. Egar, and the reading of the annual report by Major J. M. Knap which commanded the earnest attention of the audience throughout.

From the report it appears that during the year one thousand two hundred and thirty-six prayer books and one hundred and six mission services have been distributed, a number of which were sent to the Home Mission for Colored People in the South, in response to an earnest appeal from Rev. Mr. Gillett, located there. Since the last meeting auxiliary societies have been formed in Oil City, Washington, Pa., Sewickley, Erie, Franklin, Uniontown and Brady's Bend. It is hoped that during the coming year representatives will be welcomed from every parish in the Diocese.

In reference to distributions, the report states that while it is the design of the Managers to respond freely to all applicants within the Diocese, it is thought good policy to urge the importance of selling instead of giving where the recipient is able to pay all or a part of the price. It has been found that the books thus purchased are more highly prized than when they cost nothing.

The President, Secretary and Treasurer constitute an Executive Committee, to whom all applications should be made.

During the year collections have been made at various times which were sufficient for the requirements of the Society.

The number of parishes contributing last year shows a gratifying increase over the number for the preceding year, an evidence that the object of the Society is becoming better known and more highly appreciated. The report further contains explicit details in reference to the manner of conducting the work of the Society, which, however, is made known to all applicants, and need not be repeated here.

At the close of the sixteenth year of the Society's existence, the managers look back with pleasure to the harmony which has uniformly prevailed, and with gratitude that tney have been permitted to labor in this way in so many and distant fields. During this time books have been sent to Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Minnesota, Missouri, Oregon, Arkansas, Tennessee, Nevada, Colorado, Idaho and Utah, while at the same time every reasonable demand from the Diocese of Pittsburgh has been supplied. The results, however, cannot be measured by the number of books distributed. Sermons have been preached in the interest of the Society, the influence of which has extended far beyond the occasion of their delivery. One of these, by Bishop Stevens, on "The Book of Prayer for the House of Prayer," preached in Trinity Church, May 8th, 1859, was printed by this Society, and afterwards by the Evangelical Knowledge Society, by Messrs. Ide, of New Hampshire, as a church tract, by one of the largest religious publishing houses in England, by the New York Bible and Prayer Book Society, and in several newspapers at different times. This sermon of itself has accomplished a wonderful work in showing to others the excellency and beauty of the Liturgy.

The report concludes: "We congratulate the Society that the year just closed has been marked by an increase in the number of contributing parishes and larger receipts than any which has preceded it Let us measure its results by the vastness of the field before us and the imperative nature of the duty to labor for our Divine Master, and the comparison cannot fail to render us more earnest in our prayers and efforts to make a record for our Society in the future."

At the conclusion of the reading of the report, the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year, after which the anniversary meeting was brought to a close:

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

President—Mrs. Thomas M. Howe.
Vice President—Mrs. Sophia Grant.
Secretary—Mrs. Felix R. Brunot.
Treasurer—Mrs. Mary Jackson.
Librarian—Miss Traer.
Managers—Mrs. John Shoenberger, Mrs. Gorman, Mrs. McCandless, Mrs. Isaac Pennock, Mrs. Byram, Mrs. Hartley, Mrs. Slattery, Mrs. Andrew Robinson, Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Christy, Miss M. A. Robinson, Mrs. Ringewalt, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Coster, Mrs. J. Paul, Mrs. Crumpton, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Emma Smith, Mrs. B. B. Vincent, Mrs. R. S. Smith, Mrs. B. F. Brown, Mrs. Samuel Plummer, Miss Cass, Miss Chislet.

Another Arrest.

As we intimated yesterday, the detection and punishment of several parties for striking a false alarm of fire in Allegheny, Saturday night, furnished a clue to other parties implicated in the practice, which has been followed up. The authorities seem determined to sift the matter thoroughly, and are making exertions to bring every person suspected in the least degree to an examination. Yesterday officer Gebby brought information before Mayor Drum against James Hunter, charging him with tampering with the fire alarm telegraph and giving false alarms. Hunter was formerly Captain of the night watch on the Allegheny police force, but is at present Weighmaster of the Second ward scales. He is a brother of one of the parties arrested and fined for striking the alarm on Saturday night, and also an old fireman, at present holding the position of President of the Friendship Hose Company. It is but justice to say in his behalf, that he claims to be able to prove clearly his innocence in the case. He was arrested and gave bail in the sum of eight hundred dollars for a hearing tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The audience at the Opera House, last evening, was reasonably large. Mrs. Mary Gladstane, the beautiful and accomplished actress, appeared as Julia in the "Hunchback." The cast was excellent and the entertainment was of a highly satisfactory character. This evening "Leah, the Forsaken" will be presented, with Mrs. Gladstane in the title role.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—There was not even standing room unoccupied at the Pittsburgh Theatre last night, and we were informed that quite a number of persons were turned away from the door. The entertainment was a most excellent one. McAndrews, the great delineator of negro character, made a decided hit, as did also Mr. Taylor, the comic vocalist. They were each called out several times. The other members of the company were on their good behavior.

MASONIC HALL.—The Allegheny Quartette Club will give a second vocal and instrumental concert, at Masonic Hall, Thursday evening, which promises to be a rich musical treat.

STEAMBOAT DISASTER,

Sinking and Burning of the Steamer G. A. Thompson in Arkansas River—Seventeen Lives Lost.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

MEMPHIS, April 12.—The Appeal's Little Rock special this evening gives the following particulars of the loss of the steamer G. A. Thompson, obtained from Mr. J. B. Dismones, one of the pilots: The boat, commanded by Captain Frazier, bound from Cincinnati to Little Rock and Fort Smith, laden with bacon, flour, agricultural implements, furniture and lime, she had on board at the time of the accident, about eighteen passengers, five of which were ladies, including the captain's wife. The boat struck a snag near Erwin's Landing, forty miles below Little Rock; at 2 A. M. Saturday, and sank immediately in nine feet of water. The slaking of the lime on deck set the boat on fire, she sinking very shortly after. An effort was made to throw the lime overboard, but the crew were driven away by the heat and flames. Immediately steps were taken to save the ladies, which was accomplished with the life-boat. After considerable difficulty in keeping men back, in which shooting had to be threatened, the ladies were landed on a sandbar. Meanwhile the yawl used to save the crew was swamped by too many jumping in, which occasioned the greatest loss of life. Mr. Dismones was in the yawl when swamped and floated down the river. His cries were heard and a life-boat was sent out to his rescue, and succeeded in saving him. Major Hugh Wilson and the carpenter of the boat, out of about thirteen or fourteen in the yawl when it swamped. Seventeen lives were lost, eight whites, including George Ely, first clerk, and John Perkins, second clerk, the cook, a lame cabin boy, of New Albany, Mr. Frandle, of Little Rock, and three others, names not yet known, and nine colored chambermaids. Ely and Perkins were both in the yawl when it swamped. They were both good swimmers, but drowned.

The Allen, going down, Sunday morning took the survivors of the crew, and the Caldwell, coming up, brought the passengers to this city, both boats treating the sufferers with great kindness. The officers of the Thompson behaved with great coolness. The ladies were hardly aware of the extent of the accident before they were safely landed. The boat and cargo is a total loss. The former was valued at from $10,000 to $15,000; insured mostly in Cincinnati offices. The value of the cargo is unknown. Protest has been entered.

Henry S. Foote Denounces Ex-President Johnson.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NASHVILLE, April 12.—Henry S. Foote replies in the Press and Times, this morning, to a portion of Ex-President Johnson's speech, in which he assumes Johnson charged him with ingratitude. He denies the charge, and avers that he owes nothing to the forbearance or generosity of Johnson, who, he alleges, together with Mr. Seward, treated him unkindly and cruelly. He denounces Johnson as a seditionist, to whom the people of Tennessee are indebted for disfranchisement; charges him with usurpation and tyranny, and admonishes the people of the Southern States not to be controlled by him, but to accept the legislation of Congress and confide in Gen. Grant, who, he assures them, is their friend, and desires to restore them to prosperity and good government. He also charges that Johnson is opposed to negro suffrage and political equality, and refers to Johnson's interview with Fred. Douglas, in which he said these things would lead to a war of races to sustain him.

A call is made upon John Trimble to accept the Republican nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court in Tennessee.

Ex-President Johnson is still in Nashville. He has abandoned his trip to Europe, preferring, he says, to devote his time and energies in behalf of the disfranchised of the South. He will speak in all the Southern States.

The Gold Mine Disaster in Nevada.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The Gold Hill Mines were uncovered to-day. No trace of smoke was observed. Lights sent down were extinguished immediately by foul air. The blowers of several mines were set in operation and streams of water turned on in expectation of expelling the poisonous atmosphere and absorbing the gasses. A party descended to a point six hundred feet below the level, but the air extinguishing their lights they gave the signal to hoist, although not feeling the bad air themselves. Great interest is manifested to ascertain the damage to the mines. To-day Yellow Jacket, Crown Point and Kentuck sold at an advance on Saturday's quotations, in anticipation of slight damage by fire.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The fire broke out in the Kentuck mine, at seven hundred foot level, this evening, and it was necessary to close the shafts again in order to smother the flames. It is supposed the fire is still burning in Yellow Jacket, as steam and vapor from this mine is much hotter than from Crown Point. A partial examination of the mines to-day denoted considerable damage in Kentuck and Yellow Jacket. Coffins were sent to Crown Point shaft this afternoon, and several bodies removed. The bodies were horribly disfigured, but still recognizable.

CHARLES SNOWDEN FAIRFAX died in Baltimore, Sunday, the 3d inst., of consumption. He was the recognized tenth Baron Fairfax, of Cameron, in the peerage of Scotland, and was entitled to a seat in the British House of Lords. He was the great-great-great-grandson of Henry, fourth baron, and cousin of Lord Thomas Fairfax, of Virginia, whose career during our Revolutionary War is well known, and after whom Fairfax county is named. In 1800 the Rev. Bryan Fairfax, of Valcluse, Virginia, was confirmed by the House of Lords as eighth baron, but neither himself nor his son Thomas, nor the subject of this sketch ever assumed the title, although the succession is regularly recorded in "Burke's Peerage and Baronetage." Some years ago he moved to California, and in 1864 became Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State, which position he held until the time of his death. Last year he came east as a delegate to the National Democratic Convention, held at Tammany Hall, and was chairman of the California delegation.

THE strike of the Chicago shoemakers, which began three months ago, has not ended, though the strikers have utterly failed in carrying their point. Twelve of the heaviest dealers in that city, comprising almost the entire manufacturing interest, have bound themselves together not to employ any workman who is a member of the Knights of St. Crispin, and in the present dull season they get all the help they need outside of that order.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—Jeff Davis writes that he will return to the United States from Europe this spring, and engage in business.

—Thurlow Weed is on his way home from South Carolina, having, it is said, been driven from his retirement by the importunities of office-seekers.

—The Gas Company of Cincinnati returned to the assessor of internal revenue 288,182,209 cubic feet of gas manufactured during the year ending March 1st, 1869.

—At Wyoming, Canada, Sunday night, George Taylor's Oil Refinery, containing three hundred and eighty barrels of refined and seven hundred barrels of crude oil, was destroyed by fire. Loss about $12,000.

—Gov. Wells, yesterday afternoon, addressed a large Republican meeting, in Richmond, Virginia, giving a history of the passage of the Virginia Election Bill by Congress, and attributing much of the success to his own exertion in its behalf.

—On Saturday evening, at Jarrettsville, Hartford County, Maryland, Miss Cairns shot and killed Nicholas McComas. About twenty persons were seated on the porch of the village hotel, when Miss Cairns suddenly appeared, drew a pistol and fired three shots at McComas. The alleged cause of the murder was seduction.

—The war on New York brokers was summarily stopped on Saturday (says a special to the World) by Commissioner Delano, who sent a telegram to Collector Shook, of the Thirty-second District, on Saturday, containing instructions which virtually exempt the brokers from taxes, which, if collected, would amount to ten millions a year.

—The Odd Fellows of St. Louis are making extensive preparations for the semi-centenial anniversary of the order and reunion on the 26th of April. Efforts will be made to make the celebration second in point of numbers to that at Philadelphia, which city has been selected by the Grand Lodge for the major celebration. Reduced fare on various railroads has been secured, and thousands of persons are expected.

—It is stated that the officers of both the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroad have decided not to have any opening or other excursion over their roads this summer, for the reason that it will take their time and rolling stock to do the legitimate business over the road to get it in first class condition, as everything so far has been pushed to an early construction. They have given all members of Congress free passes over the roads, which are good for one year.

A NEW stove has lately been introduced in Europe for heating railway carriages. It consists of an iron cylinder covered with sheet glass, is placed outside on the top of the carriage and heated by means of charcoal. A small cylinder and a receptacle for the ashes complete the whole apparatus, which is said to distribute an equal and agreeable temperature.

A NASHVILLE druggist has invented a rat-paint made of a preparation of phosphorus. You first catch a rat and paint him. After dark he looks like a ball of fire, and going among his fellow rats, they become frightened and vacate the premises, the phosphorescent rat following of course and hurrying up the rear.

AT a railroad meeting in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, last week, Judge Hurd read a letter from Gen. Cass, stating in detail what the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railroad would do to assist the extension from Millersburg to Mt. Vernon.

TRUSSES AND HERNIA.

The sad and deplorable condition of many who are afflicted with hernia or rupture of the bowels, calls loudly for some efficient and unmistakable remedy that will not only in every case give efficient relief, but in many cases effect a radical and thorough cure. These cases of hernia have become so frequent, that it is computed that one-sixth of the male population are said to be troubled, in some way or another, with this terrible ailment; and in very many cases do not know where to apply for an appropriate remedy, oftentimes not knowing whether an appliance is really needed or not; and if it should be needed, they often do not know where or to whom they should make application The world is full of Trusses for the retention and cure of this lamentable evil, oftentimes an incontestable proof of their total and inadequate fitness to relieve the sufferer. This need not be; Dr. Keyser, at his new medicine store, No. 167 Liberty street, is abundantly supplied with every appliance, needful to the retention and relief of this terrible affliction, so that every one can be properly fitted at a moderate cost, with the full assurance that the appliance is the best that the mechanical department of surgery can afford. The Doctor has pursued the investigation of hernia with more than ordinary care for over thirty years, so that the afflicted can place implicit reliance on his skill and integrity with the full assurance that they will not only get the best truss, suitable to the case, but likewise a thorough and efficient knowledge of its proper application.

There are many persons who not only sacrifice their health, but even their lives, for want of a proper truss, or a truss properly applied. Strangulated and irreducable rupture, is a far more common ailment now than in former years; and may we not justly arrive at the conclusion, that its frequency is often occasioned by the neglect and carelessness of the sufferers themselves. No one would be regarded as sane or excusable who would go for a whole winter without the proper clothing to shield them from the inclemency of the weather, but, at the same time, it is thought a light affair to suffer for years with a protrusion that not only subjects the person to inconvenience, but even places life itself in jeopardy. Those of our readers who may be unfortunate to need appliances of this kind cannot act more wisely than to cut this advertisement out and preserve it, so as to enable them to retain the place where such important preservers of life and health are to be procured.

WOMAN AND HER NEEDS.

Subject by the law of nature to many physical afflictions from which man is exempt, woman is peculiarly entitled to the best efforts of medical science in her behalf. For a majority of the ailments to which her sex is exclusively liable, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are warmly recommended on the authority of wives, mothers and nurses, who have tested their genial tonic and regulating properties, and "know whereof they speak;" and also with the sanction of able physicians, who have administered the preparation to their female patients, in obstinate cases of functional derangement, with the happiest results. Almost all female complaints of special character are complicated with mental gloom and despondency, and the gentle and lasting exhilerating effects of this wholesome medicated stimulant adapts admirably for cases of this complex nature. As a remedy for the hysteria and mental hallucinations which sometimes mark both the earlier and the later crisis in the life of a woman, it has no equal in the repertory of the healing art, and as a means of relieving the nausea and other unpleasant feelings which precede maternity, it is equally efficacious. Nursing mothers also find it an admirable invigorant. It is highly satisfactory that a preparation, which embraces in its remedial ranges so many of the complaints common to both sexes, should prove so eminently benficial to the weaker one.

TO IRON MANUFACTURERS.

FINELY DIVIDED ORE.

Parties needing machines to reduce the product of our regular Crushers down to fine grains, are informed that we are prepared to furnish a small machine, gotten up expressly for that purpose, at a price amounting to only a fraction of that demanded for any other machine that will do an equal amount of the work. Those who take reasonable measures to find out facts—not trusting to hearsay—may escape contracting for more expensive machinery than they need to crush their ore. One of these small machines, together with one of our Breakers of the usual style, (the former being fed from the latter by one handling of the material,) will, if properly managed, reduce ore from ordinary lumps to pass through No. 5 mesh at the rate of about a ton an hour; or through No. 8 mesh at the rate of two-thirds of a ton per hour.

With a view to the introduction of this crusher a limited number of parties, wanting the kind and amount of work done which we pronounce the machine capable of doing, will each be furnished one of them on trial, free for thirty days, or other period agreed on, the machine to be set up and run according to our specifications.

Parties disposed to consider this proposition, will confer with the subscriber.

The Artificial Limb Manufacturing CO.

CHARTERED BY THE STATE OF PENNA.

All Shareholders are Men Wearing the Limbs Made by the Company.

To those requiring a limb we would say that our own experience has induced us to establish a factory here that would make a comfortable and durable limb for a reasonable price. After trying a number of solid socket and padded socket legs, we have each found more comfort and usefulness in this "ADJUSTABLE LACING SOCKET" than in any other made in the country. One of our number, a skilled mechanic, has charge of the shop. We have bought the right to use two of the best patents, and by our experience we hope to improve in every way that will add to the comfort, durability or appearance of the limbs we make. We have put the price of our new legs at $80. Persons from a distance are only detained in the city while the measure and a cast of the injured limb is taken.

The saving to purchasers, as compared with Eastern prices, is from $20 to $95 in the price of legs; at least $26 railroad fare, hotel bills and other traveling expenses, and then we are satisfied that our limb will give better satisfaction than any one made in New York or Philadelphia. If we can get orders, we can maintain our factory at the above price, and we therefore ask an examination before going elsewhere.

We make to order and keep on hand a supply of stockings, braces, and appliances for injured or deformed limbs, also, crutches, trusses, shoulder braces, &c. For further information or circular, containing many testimonial letters from those who have worn our artificial limbs, address ARTIFICIAL LIMB MANUFACTURING CO., No. 503 PENN STREET, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, Pittsburgh, Pa. ap13:h35 TTHF

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 12, 1869.

The gold market opened at a decline of one-fourth per cent. from Saturday's closing quotations, and gradually declined to 132⅞, from which point it advanced to 133¼, closing quiet. The high loaning rate caused many parties to present their May coupons for exchange into gold, and submit to the rebate. After the middle of the month it is expected that gold will be plenty, and rates will decline.

Government bonds opened with more activity, but the market relapsed, and a general decline of about one-fourth ensued except for 1862's, and old 1865's which advanced about one per cent. on rumor of a corner in either of them. The report, however, proved incorrect. The general disposition regarding government bonds is for lower quotations, and the large offerings from the interior are likely to keep the market fully supplied.

Stocks strong and more active. Fort Wayne advanced to 132 ex-dividend.

Money still very high: best collaterals will command ten per cent.

Business, more activity displayed.

Quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz: Gold, 133¼; Silver, 126; Eighty-one's, 116¼; Five Twenties, 1862, 120⅛; do 1864, 114¾; do 1865, 117¼; do 1865, Consols, 113⅜; do 1867, 113¾; do 1868, 113¾; Ten Forties, 105⅜; New York Central, 63⅛; Erie, 34; Reading, 92¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 33; Ohio & Mississippi, 32⅞; Michigan Southern, 89¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 90⅛; Chicago & Rock Island, 131½; Chicago & North-Western, 84½; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 96¼; Adams Express Company, 58¼; Merchants Union Express, 15½; Pacific Mail, 92⅞; Western Union Telegraph Company, 41¼; Gregory, 2,80; Quartz Hill, 1,20; Corydon, 10; Smith & Parmlee, 2,50; W. By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, April 12, 1869.

The money market is very close, the bulk of operations being at 7 per cent. currency, with a commission of 1-10@⅛ per cent., mainly the former, and coin interest. Discounts nominal. Sterling dull and heavy at 7½@7⅝ per cent. for best bills, and it is difficult to name the price for round lots. Gold lower, but closed quiet and steady, opening at 133½, falling to 132¾ and closing at 133⅛@133¼. The activity of Saturday is reflected in clearances to-day, which reach $113,000,000. The City of Brooklyn brought $1,034,000 in American coin from Europe, for which the Assistant Treasurer has issued, on proper security, payments of coin interest to-day of $147,000. Rates paid for borrowing were 1-10@¼ per cent. to flat., and for carrying 1-32@1-16 per cent. to 6@5 per cent. It appears that the Bank of New York paid all its gold checks on Saturday.

Governments opened strong, with 62s and 10-40s as the features; former sold as high as 121, but the advance was not maintained, the price falling to 120⅝. Other issues fell ⅛@¼ per cent. in sympathy. The market finally closed strong. Coupons of '81, 116¼@116½; do. '62, 120¼@120½; do. '64, 115@115⅛; do. '65, 117¼@117⅜; new do., 113¾@113⅞; do. '67, 113⅝@113⅞; do. '68, 113⅝@113⅞; 10-40s, 105⅛@105⅝; Pacific Sixes, 33¾@34.

State bonds weaker, on North Carolinas, others firm; Missouris, 87¼; Old Tennessees, 66⅛@68; new do., 65¾@66; Virginias, 59½@60.

The Stock market during the morning was dull without any special feature; Michigan Southern was exceptionally strong and higher, and St. Paul irregular. Early in the afternoon there was an advance in New York Central reaching 163¼; Rock Island 133; Fort Wayne 122½, ex. dividend; St. Paul Common 78¼; Mariposa preferred 37½, and Michigan Southern 98. The advance was subsequently lost, and the market closed dull.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 12, 1869.

The oil market was exceedingly quiet to-day, but a single operation reported, but with a pretty strong feeling, apparently, prices are fully sustained, and there was no disposition manifested to make concessions in order to effect sales. The time and attention of the trade generally is too much absorbed in arranging for deliveries, to give much attention to new business, though, as was the case last week, buyers and sellers, for some reason or other, cannot get together. The great proportion of the oil arriving is being put in on sellers options, all the year, and, as a consequence, some parties are getting more oil than they expected or desired at this particulnr time. It may seem strange yet is nevertheless true, as it has been fully demonstrated within the past week, that 500 barrels of oil will sometimes satisfy contracts of 5,000 barrels, and we heard of 1,000 bbls to-day, which filled contracts to the amount of 20,000 bbls; as it cancelled nineteen contrats of one thousand barrels each!

CRUDE—There was but a single transaction reported, 500 bbls, on spot, at 15. Sellers option to July may be quoted at 15¼@15½, and May and June, that is for a specified amount each month, would probably command 16. July to December, for 500 or 1,000 each month, may be quoted nominally at 17.

REFINED—The Refined market is although quiet is very firm, and while there was not a single sale reported, prices, compared with Saturday, are fully sustained. Spot oil quoted at 32; last half April 32½; May 33¼; May and June together, 33⅛@33¾; April to September 35; May to September, 35½; and June to December, 36. Sale on Saturday of a buyer option, all year, at 38¾.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, April 12, 1869.

The supply on sale to-day, footed up about 750 head, but with an unusually brisk demand on the part of butchers, the market was active and very stiff, and drovers experienced no difficulty in selling, and that, too, at full prices. There was also some little inquiry for shipment, although there was not much show for shippers as the supply was just about large enough, for the retail trade, and by ten o'clock A. M. the butchers had bought nearly everything in market. The quality of the Cattle on sale, taking the number into consideration, was about up to the usual standard, and those butchers desiring good cattle experienced no difficulty in obtaining them.

Prices, compared with last week, have undergone no quotable change, though the feeling was very stiff, and it is possible that the commoner and medium grades may have brought a slight advance. Prime to extra fat steers sold at 8¼@8¾, and good to medium, at 7¼ to 7¾@8. Stock steers may be quoted at 5½@6½. Fresh cows, $40@80 per head.

John Kerwin sold 15 head of Washington Co. steers for Bell, at 7@7⅞; N. Carr 17 head cows from Licking Co. Ohio for Malholm, at 6@7¼; Hedges & Taylor 36 head from Missouri and Illinois, at 6¾@7¼; C. Beeler 10 head Butler Co. steers and heifers, at 5@6; Stakely & Bro. 5 head: L. & J. Shamberg 54 from Chicago, at 6,90@8,25; L. Rothchilds 35 prime Chicago, at 7¾@9; 3 extra steers to S. Shamberg, at 9; E. Katz 18 head steers, at 7¼@8; 14 head bulls, at 6@6½; Hartman & Zeigler 34 head Chicago steers, at 7@8¼; Haas & Kraus 57 head Chicago steers, at 6½@8; M Verner 17 head Chicago steers, 7¼@7¾; L. Keefer 26 do do steers at, 7@8¾; Smith & Blue 20 mixed stock, at 7½@7¾; Hazlewood & Blackstock 40 Illinois and Iowa steers, at 7⅛@8½; Traurman & Lobman 65 from Chicago 6½@8¾; S. Marks & Bro. 66 do do at 7@8½; Greenwald & Kahn 60 Illinois, Ohio, at, 6@8¼; J. Andrix wholesailed 19 head Ohio steers to Greenwald & Kahn, at 6¾; J. Needy 32 head steers from Champaingn Co. Illinois for R. P. Moore, at 7¾@9; 17 head on own account, at 7@8; Holmes, Lafferty & Co. 42 head mixed stock, at 6½@8¾; S Lowensteine 17 from Chicago, at 6,60@7,50.

SHEEP—There was less than one hundred head of Sheep on sale to-day, and with an average demand, a much larger number could have been sold, and that, too, at full prices. Prime fat Sheep would have brought 7¾@8, and the few that were on sale brought from 5½@7¼.

HOGS—In fair retail demand, and the market may be quoted steady, at 11@12½ gross, in a retail way, for fair to prime heavy averages.

Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, April 12.—The market is lacking in buoyancy as well as in activity, but where concessions are yielded holders are disposed to take hold of low pieced goods with more alacrity. The most important change noticeable to-day is the fall in Wamsutta bleached muslins to 22½c; the Maxwell do. do. are down to 20c, Kearsage to 15¼c, and Hope is selling as low as 14c. There has been no great difference in the prices of Tuscarora and Wamsutta during the last week, but this is now obviated by the above reduction in the price of the latter. New York Mills muslins must follow Wamsutta and go to 25c, if it takes a month to do it. Ginghams are still relatively too high, and we look for a decline in them at any moment. Everything in textile fabrics are selling pretty low, if not at unprofitable rates, and as a matter of course cannot descend any lower.

MILWAUKEE, April 12.—Flour is dull, nominal and prices unchanged. Wheat is unsettled; No. 1, $1,11½; No. 2, $1,07½. Oats are dull and weak at 53½c. Corn is firm at 55¼c and rejected. New Rye is dull and nominal. Barley is quiet and steady at $1,50@1,70 for fair to good. Receipts were: 3,000 bbls flour; 7,000 bush wheat; 1,000 bush oats. Shipments were: 3,000 bbls flour; 10,000 bush wheat.

FARM, GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD.

Domestic Cooking

Salmi of Wild Ducks.—Roast the ducks on a spit, take them off before they are done and cut them in small pieces. While they are cooking, fry in oil or butter some pot-herbs, half a bay leaf, a chopped onion and head of cloves; moisten with broth and a glass of white wine; add some cooked celery and stoned olives; then sprinkle with crumbs of bread.

After boiling up once or twice, add the hashed duck, let the whole simmer in a corner of the range, turn out on a dish and serve.

There are some hunters who cook the ducks by a very small fire, with butter, white wine, pot-herbs, bay leaf, cloves, salt and pepper, and serve them with butter sauce, acidulated with tarragon vinegar. Every one to his taste.

Breast of Veal a la Provencale.—Cut the breast into small square pieces, place them in a saucepan with some spoonfuls of oil, butter or drippings, onions cut in thin slices, a bay leaf and thyme, chopped finely, salt and pepper. Cover the saucepan and cook slowly for two hours, with fire above and below, taking care to stir the contents from time to time.

Some minutes before serving add a little soup stock and a large spoonful of chopped parsley; put it back on the fire, detach from the bottom with a wooden spoon, let it cook an instant and serve.

Here is a little secret for the improvement of maccaroni.

While the water is boiling in which the maccaroni cooks at its ease, and at the moment you think it is done, throw into the saucepan a large glass of cold water and take it immediately from the fire. This fresh water has the effect of hardening the paste of the macaroni and renewing its consistence.

Fried Eggs, Remoulade Sauce—Melt butter in a pan, season with salt; break the eggs without bursting the yolks; sprinkle with a little cream if convenient; spread a few morsels of butter over the top of the eggs, season with fine salt, coarse pepper and nutmeg; put the pan over live coals, holding a red hot shovel above, removing the eggs while the yolks are still partially soft. To this dish is added Remoulade Sauce, made of olive oil, vinegar, mustard, cut shallots, parsley chopped fine, salt and pepper. Serve the sauce in a boat, for each guest to help himself.

Fish Soup.—Soak some crushed dried peas, previously well washed, then put them to cook in warm spring or river water. After softening, pass through a colander, so as to form a thin puree. Take, afterwards, some scraps of fresh fish, put them in a saucepan with an onion stuck with one or two heads of cloves, slices of carots and pot-herbs, salt and pepper; moisten with half water and half broth; add bread crumbs and a lump of butter; let the whole cook thoroughly and then strain through a colander.

A GARDEN HINT OR TWO.

The out door grape-vines should now be tied up to the trellis; the raspberry and blackberry canes should be staked and tied, but not tied too closely to the stake, as it prevents free room for natural growth. Asparagus beds should have the coarser portion of the manure raked off, the rest forked in, and in about ten days the beds should receive a good dressing of salt. The rhubarb beds should be put in order, and new beds planted if needed. The currant bushes should have all the dead and unproductive wood removed. Currants make the best bushes if planted from the cuttings. Take last year's wood, from ten to twelve inches long, and if you desire a bush plant it as it is cut, and insert it in the ground where you wish it to stand, some five or six inches, and press the soil with the feet firmly around it, and you will have currants the second year. If you would prefer a pretty little tree, cut out the eyes from the wood that goes beneath the surface. The bush is the most productive.

Gather up from every quarter all the rubbish about the garden, put it in heaps on different beds, burn and scatter the ashes.

Lose no time now in planting out your fruit trees, vines, and fruit-bearing canes. The sooner it is done the better, and the more time you will have for other things not so pressing as now. Evergreen trees can be delayed until the end of April or to the middle of May if necessary.

Pruning the flowering vines, shrubbery and rose bushes should be done without delay, if not already done. Peas should be in the ground as soon as possible. Ours we planted several days ago—that is the first and second crops, the Extra and Early Frame, with some "Advancers."

An early start in the garden has a good effect the whole season.—Germantown Telegraph.

ABOUT PAINTING, PAPERING, ETC.

Select paper with quiet tints, as being in better taste than gaudy colors. Some paper the ceilings also. For this a white or nearly white watered paper should be used, with a broad and delicately colored border.

Side walls can be papered by women. Trim the unprinted edge from one side of the paper, cut into strips the right length, matching the figure as you cut, then lay one strip at a time on a long table, and with a good whitewash brush, or even a clothes brush, spread on the paste—common boiled flour paste, made rather thin, and perfectly smooth—then with your assistant, lift the strip to its place, and with cloths in your hand pat it thoroughly from the top downwards and the middle outwards. In putting on the second piece, lap its trimmed edge over the untrimmed edge of the first, and match the figure.

Do not begin in a corner, for these are seldom straight, but begin by a door, so that when you come around to the place of beginning, there will not be a strip of broken figure to close up with. In papering the corners of a room, always cut the paper instead of turning the corner whole, and then lap a little so, so that the paper will go in smooth to any irregularities in the corner, and not bridge across, as it will do if put on whole.

If your house is nice, and you wish to repaint within doors, do not fail to get the zinc paint for the last coat. It costs more, but is vastly more durable, has a beautiful polish, and is very easily cleaned without soap. But if you are building a nice house, by all means have the wood work varnished, and dispense with paint entirely. Almost any wood is handsomer varnished than any paint can make it, and a simple damp cloth will then remove all dirt.

All the old varnished furniture, bedsteads, chairs, tables, &c., can be made to look almost like new, if well rubbed with turpentine and oil. It past such a remedy, buy a cup of varnish, get the loan of a brush and varnish the furniture yourself. A nicely varnished table is handsomer to my taste without a spread than with one.

If new curtains are wanted for any part of the house, get buff chintz, and the size of the windows, run a flat rod into the lower hem, and nail the upper edge to a round rod, such as you can get at the stores arranged to draw up by a cord at the sides; or if you cannot do better put a round rod at the bottom and roll up, tying with a cord and tassel thrown over the top. White curtains can be added, if wanted.

Carpets should be taken up at least once a year and thoroughly beaten with whips. All common ones should be turned the other side up. Good straw evenly laid down is the best to keep dust from wearing carpets. Carpets that are to be stretched much should be bound all around, and oil cloths should also be bound with carpet binding.

In purchasing a carpet, remember that large patterns are only suited to large rooms, and that a carpet with a small figure, covering nearly the whole surface, will last longest, especially if the carpets be three-ply. Let there be a harmony of colors between the carpet and wall paper. Select substantial colors as well as substantial cloth, don't get a green carpet, and then keep the room dark to protect it, but get one that loves the light. Cotton carpets or even linen are poor economy, but for honest wear give us the old fashioned rag carpet yet. —Ohio Farmer.

IS WHITE CLOVER PASTURE GOOD FOR SHEEP?

Having kept sheep for six years, principally upon white clover, I can recommend it as being durable and affording about one-third more food than other grasses, and it will stand closer feeding, and sheep will do well on it. I have about ten acres that have been seeded eighteen or twenty years. It was sown with prairie grass, which is long since extinct, and the clover still flourishes, (the ground has never been broken,) and it has often been remarked that my pasture will sustain more stock than any pasture of its size in the neighborhood. It also makes good hay for sheep. I mix white clover seed, and sow for meadow; it sods over better and yields all of one-third more per acre, and makes much better hay for sheep. I wintered sixty-five sheep on hay thus mixed, without feeding any grain, and lost none after winter set in, and none are poor and weak. My lambs have need of but little care, their dams all being in good condition. The above sheep kept better than flocks in the vicinity that have had hay and grain without white clover. Wis. Farmer.

FOWLS IN ORCHARDS.

The public has yet to learn the full advantage of keeping poultry. Few seem to appreciate what they may do among trees in an orchard. Let any one try them in an orchard of a quarter of an acre, where they may be kept by the picket fence four or five feet high, putting in, say 125 fowls, and observe the result. He will avoid the annoyances in the garden, of which so many complain, while they will work among the trees, doing just what is needed and destroying everything that can injure the fruit trees, in the shape of bugs, worms or other insects, and lay a large number of eggs, which are a cash article, to say nothing of the chickens, which pay well for raising at the present time. I have tried it, and know it is so. I have about one hundred fowls, which have worked admirably among my trees, keeping the ground in good condition, keeping off the insects and promoting the growth of the orchard. I am satisfied that we have yet to learn the full benefits which may be derived from the proper management of fowls, and it is quite possible that the method I have suggested may offer the best way of getting our apple orchards into bearing condition.—Exchange.

SOAP SUDS.

A cistern or tank, of the capacity of from two to four hogsheads, should be constructed in the vicinity of the sink or laundry of every farm house, and a system of conductors so arranged as to lead the suds and slops into it as they are made.

This liquid matter is a most powerful fertilizer, containing the food of plants in a state of solution, and consequently in a condition to be readily taken up and absorbed by vegetables as soon as applied.

Irrigating gardens with soap suds, after the liquid has become stale, is a powerful means of promoting vegetable growth, especially in dry weather. Some have considered the value of such to be equal to that of the same weight of manure; this, however, is probably an exaggerated estimate; yet we want no additional corroboration to satisfy us of its intrinsic worth as a vegetable stimulant.

Great care should be observed that the decaying matter and suds do not taint the air about the dwelling, as in the process of fermentation and decomposition sulphuretted hydrogen gas is thrown off. This is an active poison. When inhaled it acts directly on the blood, thickening it and turning it black. A single gallon of it, mixed with 1,200 of air, will render it poisonous to birds, and one gallon in 100 will kill a dog. Many of our people are not sufficiently careful about allowing such "sinks of iniquity" to exist near their dwellings.—New England Farmer.

EGG-PLANTS AND TOMATOES.

Every person can raise his own tomato and egg-plants with very little trouble. Select a warm border, enrich heavily with horse-manure, pulverize the ground thoroughly, and sow pretty thickly, thinning out if necessary. A common window sash or two, raised two or three inches over them, on any kind of supports, will greatly facilitate their vegetation and growth. If they are transplanted into other beds when they are three or four inches high, so that they shall stand about three inches apart each way, it will cause them to become very stout in the stem, and they will branch considerably, making much stronger and more productive plants. Tomatoes should not be set out for a crop until the ground is warm and weather settled, say the 1st of April or 1st of May, the latter perhaps the better. Egg-plants should never be set out before the last week in May. We prefer the Fiji tomato, and the Long Purple egg-plant, though many other excellent varieties of the tomato are now introduced, some of which it would be well to cultivate also. Not a day should be lost in getting in the seed.—Germantown Telegraph.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE GAZETTE is furnished in the city the six days of the week for 15 cents per week: by mail, $8 per annum: 3 mos., $2.

Gas Pipe is being laid on Bedford avenue and Gum street in the upper wards.

Mayor Drum yesterday morning disposed of eleven drunken cases, picked up by the police the day previous.

Exploded.—The unwholesome meat case, of which we published an account on Saturday, has been completely exploded, and the accused after a hearing was discharged.

Gangs of Laborers were at work in different portions of the city, yesterday, repairing the streets. Some of them, especially Grant and Smithfield, needed a little attention.

Officer Wm. J. Wilson, formerly night watchman at the Union Depot, has been transferred to the Federal street (Allegheny) Depot of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, to fill a similar position.

A meeting of the Committee on Fire Engines and Hose of the Allegheny Councils was held last evening, to take action in reference to repairing of the Fire Alarm Telegraph. We did not learn the result of the meeting.

Committed for Trial.—Stephen Blange, charged on oath of Robert McCambridge with the larceny of $80, had a hearing before his Honor the Mayor, yesterday, and in default of bail for his appearance at Court was committed to jail.

By request, Mrs. Barclay will repeat her course of lectures bearing directly upon those subjects with regard to which our ladies are least intelligent, every afternoon this week at four o'clock. The lectures will be given in Dr. Young's church on Grant street, between Sixth and Seventh.

"J. N," the great Philosopher, called on us yesterday, to announce that he would assume the pressure at the Custom House steps to-morrow evening. J. N. thinks the veil will soon be lifted and all persons permitted to see, as he has seen all along, into the great and mysterious problems which have tried and shaken our Government.

Surety.—Margaret Gracey made information yesterday against Mary Ann Thompson for surety of the peace. The parties reside in Birmingham. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant made divers fierce threats against her little daughter Theresa, aged about ten years. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Mrs. Thompson.

Hack Driver's Encounter.—John S. Hancock and Edward McGann, rival hack drivers, had a personal encounter in the vicinity of the Union Depot yesterday. John alleges Edward struck him several blows with a whip, besides using vilely insulting language toward him. A warrant for the arrest of the accused was issued by Alderman McMasters.

Robbed by a Room Mate.—Andrew Miller made information before Alderman Taylor at a late hour on Saturday night, against John Brown, for larceny. Miller states he occupied a room at a hotel at Irwin's Station, with Brown, and when he arose in the morning discovered the absence of Brown, a silver watch and a part of his clothing. A warrant was issued.

The Snyder Robbery.—We have been credibly informed that the money alleged to have been lost by Anthony Snyder, an account of which we published yesterday, has been recovered, but how or from whom we were unable to learn. Johnson and Wilson, the parties arrested on suspicion, will have a hearing this morning, when perhaps the facts will transpire.

Western University.—The last term begins on Wednesday, the 14th. Admission to any of the classes in the preparatory departments, English and Classical, the Commercial, Scientific and Collegiate Departments. Courses in Mechanical and Civil Engineering, in charge, mainly, of Colonel Nicodemus, U. S. A., are a new feature. Catalogues procurable of President George Woods, LL. D., corner of Ross and Diamond streets.

Correction.—Messrs Editors: In your issue of the 8th inst., you report Rev. James R. Newell a candidate for the pastorship of the Reformed Presbyterian Congregation of Allegheny, which is an error, as Mr. Newell, during the month of January, positively declined being a candidate. This correction is made in justice to Mr. Newell, at the request of the congregation.

WM. MARTIN, Chairman.

Another Raid.—Sunday at a late hour a raid was made on a disorderly house kept by Josephine Bassett, in the Third ward, by the Allegheny police, who were successful in securing three women and three men. Two of the women and one of the men were white, the other three colored. At the hearing before the Mayor, yesterday morning, the men were each fined five dollars and costs and the women sent to jail for thirty days.

For Sheriff.—The friends of Captain Hugh S. Fleming announce that they will present his name for the Shrievalty nomination, subject to the decision of the Union Republican County Convention. Capt. Fleming is a gentleman well and favorably known in this county, and has the honor of occupying high place in the estimation of his fellow-citizens. As Mayor of Allegheny, he developed rare and extraordinary executive abilities, and made an efficient and creditable officer. If elevated to the office of Sheriff, we are quite sure he would so discharge his duties as to win the approval and confidence of the public.

A Fierce Assault.

James A. Stevenson made information before Mayor Drum last evening against John Callahan for assault and battery. The parties are teamsters. Yesterday afternoon, according to Stevenson's statement, the teams met on Rebecca street, First ward, Allegheny, when Callahan sought a quarrel with him, pulled him out of his wagon and caused him to break his arm by coming in contact with the ground. Callahan was arrested and gave bail for a hearing this evening at six o'clock.

Attempted Rescue.

Yesterday morning George Kneeland and Jeremiah Fry were intoxicated and acting in a very disorderly manner near the Troy Hill road, Eighth ward, Allegheny. The officer on the beat attempted to arrest the twain when a third party, John Cashan, interfered and endeavored to prevent the arrest. The officer summoned assistance and succeeded in arresting Cashan in company with the other two. Last evening Mayor Drum fined Cashan ten dollars and costs, and Kneeland and Fry five dollars each. The fines were paid and the parties discharged.

Educational.

The following rules have been adopted by the Committee on Teachers' Permanent Certificates for Allegheny county:

No member of the Committee will sign an application for a permanent certificate until the application has been passed at a regular meeting of the Committee.

All applicants will be examined on the theory of teaching and whatever other branches the Committee may think proper. A thesis also of not less than five (5) pages of fools cap and not more than eight (8) will be required from each applicant, on a subject to be assigned by the Committee.

All applicants will be required to have studied some work on the theory of teaching. In view of the proposed examination the following works are suggested: Wickersham, Hart and Page.

The Committee will meet on the second Saturday of each month (except July) at Nos. 52 and 54 St. Clair street. Hour for meeting is 10 A. M.

By order of the Committee.

April 10th, 1869.

Prisoner Escaped.

Some time since a process was issued by the Court for the arrest of a man named Wilkinson, charged with burglariously entering the house of Mr. Raney, on Peen street, in company with John Boswell, and carrying off a lot of plunder. Boswell was tried, convicted and sentenced for the offense, but Wilkinson managed to elude arrest until yesterday afternoon, when Mr. Thomas, tipstave of the Court, happened to be standing in the office of Warden Scandrett of the jail, where he came in on business. Mr. Thomas at once recognized and took him into custody, but while walking quietly along through the jail yard, Wilkinson suddenly broke away from the official, and by making remarkably good time, succeeded in effecting his escape. It is hardly likely he will be caught again.

CITY COUNCILS.

Special Meeting—The Road Question—Proposed Act Relative to Grading and Paving—Bolting Members—Select Council Left Without a Quorum.

A special meeting of Councils was held yesterday, (Monday,) April 12th, 1869, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of considering a proposed act of Assembly relating to grading and paving in the outer or rural districts.

Select Council.

Members present: Messrs. Ahlborn, Armstrong, Brown, Burgwin, Coffin, Craig, Dickson, Edwards, Gallaher, Gross, Hailman, Herron, Holmes, Jones, Kane, Kehew, Kirk, Laufman Littell, Lloyd, Marshall, Morrow, Murdoch, Murray, McEwen, Ogden, Quinn, Rafferty, Schmidt, Scully, Shipton, Wainwright, S. J., and White.

On motion of Mr. Burguin, Mr. Shipton was called to the chair.

On motion of Mr. Morrow, the reading of the minutes of the preceeding meeting was dispensed with.

Mr. Gross stated the object of the meeting to be the consideration of a proposed act of Assembly relative to grading and paving in the rural districts, the substance of which had been published heretofore. He would present the bill for the consideration of Council, and hoped they would meet it fairly and consider it upon its merits.

On motion, the bill was put upon a second reading by its title.

Mr. Morrow moved that the proposed bill be published.

Mr. Burgwin thought the motion to publish was not in order and hoped it would not be pressed.

Mr. Brown also thought the motion out of order.

Mr. Littell thought the matter had not been before the people a sufficient length of time to allow them to judge of its merits and demerits.

Mr. Burgwin insisted on his point of order, and the Chair decided the motion out of order.

Mr. Burgwin then moved that the proposed bill be taken up and considered section by section.

Mr. Ogden moved to postpone.

Mr. Coffin called for the yeas and nays, with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Ahlborn, Coffin, Gallaher, Holmes, Kane, Morrow, McEwen, Ogden, Quinn, Rafferty, Shipton, Wainwright, S. J., White—13.

Nays—Messrs. Armstrong, Brown, Burgwin, Craig, Dickson, Edwards, Gross, Hailman, Herron, Jones, Kehew, Kirk, Laufman, Littell, Lloyd, Marshall, Murdoch, Murray, Schmidt, Scully—20.

Mr. Gallaher raised the point of order that the meeting was illegal, inasmuch as a number of members had not been officially notified.

Mr. Holmes moved to adjourn.

The yeas and nays were called with the following result:

Yeas—Ahlborn, Coffin, Gallaher, Holmes, Kane, Marshal, Morrow, McEwen, Ogden, Rafferty, Wainwright, S. J., White—12.

Nays—Armstrong, Brown, Burgwin, Craig, Dickson, Edwards, Gross, Hailman, Herron, Jones, Kehew, Kirk, Laufman, Littel, Lloyd, Murdoch, Murray, Schmidt, Scully, Shipton—20.

The members voting in the minority all asked that their names be placed upon the minutes as protesting against the action of the meeting as illegal, in consequence of their not having received official notice of the meeting, and the object for which it was held.

The Chairman stated that the only remedy the gentlemen had was to leave the room and take no part in the meeting if they thought it illegal, whereupon they all vacated, except Mr. Shipton, and left Councils without a quorum.

The Chairman called the retiring members to their seats.

Mr. Holmes—This is no meeting of Councils and we will go when and where we please.

A scene of general confusion ensued, and cries of "come back and face the matter fairly" proceeded from all parts of the house.

The reading of the first section was then called for, when the Chairman stated he would first count and see if there was a quorum present.

Mr. Gallaher (from the hall door)—Have you a quorum Mr. Chairman.

Mr. Burgwin thought the Chairman had no right to count the members to see if there was a quoum present. He could only receive official notice when a vote was called.

The Chairman insisted upon his decision.

Mr. Burgwin appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The Chairman decided that there was no meeting of Select Council for want of a quorum.

Mr. Brown made the point of order that it required a majority of the members present to order a call of the house.

Mr. Shipton resigned the chair, and on motion of Mr. Burgwin, Mr. Murray was called to the chair.

Mr. Burgwin moved that the first section of the bill be taken up for discussion.

Mr. Kirk thought the members who had bolted and left the Council Chamber had disgraced themselves and the people they represented. That the members from the new districts had come day after day to discuss matters pertaining to the old city, and now, when a matter was presented in which the new districts was interested, they, (the members of the old wards,) have not the courage to face it, but skulked away like dogs. He held that Council was still in session.

Mr. Kehew coincided in the remarks made by the gentleman who had just taken his seat, and thought the bolting members had cast a disgrace upon themselves that time would not wipe out.

Mr. Gross spoke in strong terms against the bolting members and submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Council anchor this good old city of fire and smoke in some eddy of the Ohio River in order to be safe from the waves of progress that are building up every other city in the Union.

Mr. Gallaher (from the lobby) there is no quorum present.

The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Burgwin offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Clerk be directed to call the roll and enter the names of those members who have withdrawn from the chamber since voting and participating in the pending proceedings for the improper purpose of preventing the action of a quorum, and this Council hereby expresses its censure of such action on their part.

Mr. Kirk moved to amend as follows: "And those members absenting themselves from Council without permission from the presiding officer be reprimanded by the chairman at the next meeting."

Mr. Gross moved to amend the amendment as follows: "And that all those members absenting themselves be suspended from taking part in the deliberation of this body hereafter, until they have apologized to the remaining members of Select Council. Adopted.

The resolution as amended was then adopted, and the roll was called when the following members answered:

Messrs. Armstrong, Brown, Burgwin, Craig, Dickson, Edwards, Gross, Hailman, Herron, Jones, Kehew, Kirk, Laufman, Lloyd, Morrow, Murdoch, Murray, Schmidt, Scully, and Shipton.

Mr. Kirk submitted the following:

Resolved, That the Legislature be requested to repeal the Consolidation acts, and that a Committee be appointed by the Chair to proceed immediately to Harrisburg and endeavor to secure such legislation.

Mr. Kehew hoped that the resolution would be withdrawn, as there were a number of members from the old wards who had not bolted but had met the matter boldly.

There was no action on Mr. Kirk's resolution.

On motion of Mr. Jones, Council adjourned.

Common Council.

At two and a half o'clock, on motion of Mr. Rook, Council was called to order by Mr. Penney taking the chair.

Members present: Messrs. Barr, Barton, Batchelor, Bell, Black, Boggs, Booth, Bulger, Carroll, Case, Daub, Fleming, Gerner, Gildenfenney, Hare, Houston, Jahn, Lockhart, McCandless, McCarthy, McClarren, McCleane, McKelvy, McMasters, Meyer, Moore, Moorhead, Morgan, Morton, Palmer, Pearson, Penney, Rebman, Reed, Rook, Seifreth, Sims, Scott, Verner, Vick, Weldon.

The minutes were read and approved.

The chairman stated that he had no information relative to the object of the special meeting of Councils.

Mr. Case moved a suspension of the rules in order that general business might be taken up. Carried.

RESOLUTIONS, PETITIONS, ETC.

Mr. Case offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Finance Committee be and it is hereby instructed to adjust the claims of the the Boroughs of Birmingham, East Birmingham and South Pittsburgh, paid into the City Treasury by the Birmingham Passenger Railway Company, and to pay over the amount due the boroughs. Adopted.

Mr. McClarren offered a resolution for the erection of two gas lamps on Grant street, midway between Virgin alley and Fifth street. Referred to Committee on Gas.

Mr. Moorhead, a resolution for the erection of a Gas lamp at Overhill and Linton streets. Similarly referred.

Mr. Rebman, a petition for a gas lamp at Vine and Cliff streets; also for the extension of gas main along Vine street. Referred to Committee on Gas.

Mr. Sims, a resolution for laying of a flagstone crossing in Fifth avenue at Smithfield street. Referred to Committee on Streets.

Mr. McKelvy, a petition for grading and paving of Twenty-seventh street, Twelfth ward. Similarly referred.

Mr. Weldon, petition, accompanied by an ordinance for the opening of Hatfield street from Forty-fourth to Jackson street. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Barton, petition for extension of Roup avenue, Twenty-second ward. Referred to Committee on Surveys.

Mr. Meyer, petition for grading and paving of Vicroy street, Sixth ward. Referred to Committee on Streets.

Mr. Reed, resolution, instructing the Committee on Gas Lighting to have gas lamps placed at the corner of Gum street and Whitesides alley; also, one on the corner of Bedford avenue and Gum streets, Eleventh ward. Referred to Committee on Gas Lighting.

Mr. McClaren, a resolution instructing the Street Commissioner to place flag stone crossings at the intersection of Fifth avenue and Grant street. Referred to Committee on Streets.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Mr. Boggs, from the Committee on Fire Engines and Hose, presented the following report:

GENTLEMEN: Your Committee on Fire Engines and Hose would respectfully report that we find the Neptune steam fire engine in the hands of the Amoskeag Company, and they propose handing over the same to the city upon payment of their claim, sixteen hundred and forty dollars.

We therefore recommend the passage of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Controller be, and he is hereby authorized to certify a warrant in favor of Wm. R. Boggs, Chairman of Committee on Fire Engines and Hose, for sixteen hundred and forty dollars, the same to be charged to the contingent fund.

Referred to the Committee on Finance, with instructions to report.

Mr. Weldon called up the ordinance laid over at the preceeding meeting, relative to the opening of Forty-Third street, from Butler to Davidson streets. The ordinance was taken up and passed finally.

Mr. McCarthy moved that the Common Council adjourn. Carried.

The Artificial Leg.

A company, singularly enough composed of several gentlemen each of whom has lost a leg, has been formed in this city for the manufacture of artificial limbs on an improved patent, which is destined, when properly understood, to supercede all others now in use. Artificial legs have hitherto been made entirely of wood, and persons under the necessity of getting them had to go to the factories in the Eastern cities and remain for about a week until the leg could be fitted to the stump. This of course occasioned considerable expense, beside the high price paid for the limb. These wooden limbs have been found very unsatisfactory. The hard and unyielding substance often chafing the stump and occasioning a severe torture to the wearer.

The improvement held by the new Company is constructed with a number of layers of leather, which so interlap each other that the socket becomes precisely adapted to the stump of the limb. It is soft and elastic, enabling the wearer to walk almost as well and comfortably as if his limb was natural. We examined one carefully, yesterday, which has been used for over a year by our efficient County Treasurer, Major Dennison, and any one not aware of the fact would scarcely suspect that his limb is not natural, as he moves about with a graceful and elastic step, yet no soldier in the army was more badly riddled with the enemy's bullets than he. He says he tried nearly all the prominent factories in the country, and spent several hundred dollars for limbs, and never got anything to give him the comfort and satisfaction of the limb he is now wearing.

The legs are to be sold at very light profit and very much less than the prices of Eastern manufacturers. Read the advertisement in another column.

Report of Ladies' Bible Society Allegheny.

The Ladies' Bible Society of Allegheny held their annual meeting in the lecture room of Dr. Swift's church on Monday afternoon, the 5th inst., at three o'clock, Rev. Dr. Elliott presided. The following report was read and adopted, and Board of Managers elected.

Thirty-ninth annual report of the Ladies' Bible Society of Allegheny:

Again are we called to present our annual report before our christian friends whose hearts we know are gladdened at our prosperity and welfare as a Society. How precious to every Christian heart is his blessed book, without whose holy influence, dark had been our hearts and homes.

Having tasted of its pure and heavenly teachings, are not our first impulses like those who have found a cool and refreshing stream in a desert, drinking ourselves, we wish others to enjoy the blessing with us.

When we remember that the Bible alone contains the revelations of that light which is to enlighten the dark places of the earth and hasten the time we long for, when the knowledge of the Lord shall fill the earth and its kingdoms shall become those of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Should not this thought urge us to greater diligence in this our work.

During the past year there have been a number of bibles distributed. One dozen English bibles, one German bible, and one dozen German testaments have been donated to St. Pauls Asylum, Butler. One dozen bibles and two dozen testaments for use of Pensacola Navy Yard and neighborhood, have been sent to Captain and Mrs. Westcott. This place has been destitute of religious privileges among the freedmen and sailors. Capt. and Mrs. Westcott have taken a deep interest in these people, and it is to be hoped that through them this good work will prosper. There have also been one dozen large print testaments sent to Lawrence, Kansas, for the use of aged colored persons there, one of whom is over sixty years of age. She has taught herself to read, and others are eager to learn, to whom these large prints will be a blessed gift. During the year we have made two life directors, Mrs. Dr. Swift and Mrs. E. J. Patterson, and three life members. There are a number of German and Bohemian bibles on hand at present. Received during the year, $411.13. Remitted to Parent Society, $330. Home distribution, $60.88.

It is with feelings of deepest regret we mention the death of one of our most efficient members, Mrs. E. J. Patterson, who had been our faithful Librarian for twenty-two years. To those who knew Mrs. Patterson there need nothing be said to commend her. She had learned of Him who when on earth was meek and lowly; all the graces of the Spirit shone in her lovely character, but her chief adornment was humility. She was no idler in her Master's vineyard; she went about while her health permitted her, and even after that had failed, doing good. It may be written of her, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord," for she rests from her labors, and her works do follow her.

Dry Goods and Notions.

Few houses in the wholesale dry goods jobbing business in the State have retained through long years a higher reputation than the old and popular establishment of Messrs. Arbuthnot, Shannon & Co., No. 115 Wood street. Through a careful system of business, close buying and liberal advantages bestowed upon their patrons, in reasonable prices and wide selection from goods which prove fully up to the standard of representation, this firm has monopolized a large share of patronage which might otherwise be directed from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia or other cities. Each of the partners is a practical business man, who devotes strict attention to the business of the house, and the firm, having ample means, secure by cash purchases made and received daily from first hands, great advantages which they share with their customers by offering foreign and American goods at as cheap prices as can prevail in the leading houses of the East. It is no difficult matter to discover then, that by purchasing at Arbuthnot, Shannon & Co's., our home dealers economize, as they save not only what it costs them to visit other markets, but also the freight on their goods back. The salesrooms of the firm will be found thoroughly stocked with Spring and Summer goods, and those of our friends making up their orders, or in the city on a purchasing visit, will not overlook this old established Dry Goods and Notion House, if they would consult their own interests.

CAUTION.

The great popularity, on account of its salutary medicinal effects, of SQUIRE'S LONDON EFFERVESCING BI. CARB.
